Paul Ricoeur Bernard P. Dauenhauer,2000-01-01 Paul Ricoeur with Rawls Walzer and Habermas as some of his main interlocutors has developed a substantial and distinctive body of political thought On the one hand it articulates a rich conception of the paradoxical character of the domain of politics On the other it provides a fresh approach to such major topics as the relationship among politics economics and ethics and between concern for universal human rights and respect for cultural plurality His work rooted as it is in Aristotle Kant and Hegel also provides resources for a fruitful rethinking of the issues at stake in the liberal communitarian debate

Extraterritorial Immigration Control Bernard Ryan,Valsamis Mitsilegas,2010-04-06 A central element of contemporary border regimes is their application to migrants before they reach a state's territory. The main forms of this extraterritorial immigration control are visa requirements, pre-embarkation immigration controls, and the interception of irregular migrants at sea. This work analyses the complex relationship of the law to these practices as legal guarantees are potentially avoided while the legality of control is often uncertain. It examines the international law framework including the law of the sea and the extraterritorial application of principles of non-refoulement contained in the Refugee Convention and in international human rights law. The work also includes detailed case studies of the legal challenges posed by extraterritorial immigration controls in Europe, Australia, and the United States.
