Inman, 2014-12-03 For the few hundred television viewers in 1946 a special treat on the broadcast schedule was the variety show called Hour Glass It was the first TV program to go beyond talking heads cooking demonstrations and sporting events featuring instead dancers comics singers and long commercials for its sponsor Chase and Sanborn coffee Within two years another variety show Texaco Star

Theatre became the first true television hit and would be credited with the sales of thousands of television sets The variety show formula was a staple of television in its first 30 years in part because it lent itself to a medium where everything had to be live and preferably inside a studio Most of the early television stars including Jackie Gleason Milton Berle Sid Caesar Ed Sullivan Red Skelton Dinah Shore and Arthur Godfrey rose to prominence through weekly variety shows In the 1960s major stars such as Jerry Lewis Dean Martin Judy Garland and Danny Kaye were hosting variety shows By the 1970s the format was giving way to sitcoms and dramas but pop music stars Sonny and Cher Tony Orlando and Dawn and Donny and Marie Osmond hosted some of the last of the species This book details 57 variety shows from the 1940s through the 1990s A history of each show is first provided followed by a brief look at each episode Air date guest stars sketches performed and a listing of songs featured are included The Emerson Street Story: Race, Class, Quality of Life and Faith Johnny E.

Brown,2020-08-18 This book presents a set of reflections and ideas for better educating our children It is also about Emerson Street neighborhood and name of the street of the home of the author s growing up in Austin Texas It is about race class quality of life and faith ending with suggestions about how to move schools toward a better system of academic success for all children and thereby impacting the common good and resulting in higher quality of life for all Also included is a summary of the Winners Always Practice Program which is a set of tips on winning strategies for sports games and for life The author expresses confidence that things can happen for the better he has kept the faith in things hoped for and the evidence of things not yet seen The essence of the book conveys the point that the time has come for a major shift in how we treat one another as human beings of equal value and importance We will all enjoy a higher quality of life when we focus more on the common good and less on considerations of race and class and selfish benefits The appropriate and progressive way to look at diversity is to celebrate and appreciate it The best and most impactful path to a higher quality of life is through successfully educating all our children all means all So far the plans commonly in place for educating our children fall short in the desired results and many children miss the opportunity to become educated successfully www.jcbil.com Twitter jbroweducator facebook.com/johnny.e.brown.7
