"Hope" is the Thing with Feathers by Emily Dickinson

"Hope" is the thing with feathers That perches in the soul And sings the tune without the words And never stops - at all

The Waste Land by T.S. Eliot

April is the cruellest month, breeding
Lilacs out of the dead land, mixing
Memory and desire, stirring
Dull roots with spring rain.

A Red, Red Rose by Robert Burns

O my Luve's like a red, red rose,
That's newly sprung in June;
O my Luve's like the melodie
That's sweetly play'd in tune.

Analogy Examples From Short Stories:

The Art of Narrative Analogy Seth D. Postell, 2025-11-04 In The Art of Narrative Analogy Seth Postell offers a literary approach for understanding the relationship between the two Testaments and between various biblical narratives that is more sensitive to the verbal meaning of the Old Testament than popular typological approaches. He argues that narrative analogy, the deliberate paralleling of characters, events, and themes across biblical texts, provides a more exegetically responsible and theologically fruitful method for understanding the Bible's unity and depth. Drawing on extensive examples from the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament, Postell reveals how scriptural authors employ parallels to illuminate theological truths and deepen narrative coherence. From the connections between Rahab and Lot to the analogies between Jonah and the calming of the storm in Mark's Gospel, he shows how these parallels invite readers into the Bible's grand theological narrative. Postell also integrates illustrations from modern storytelling, such as Star Wars, to demonstrate how analogy shapes meaning in both ancient and contemporary contexts. Postell offers clear criteria for identifying narrative analogies and practical guidance for interpreting them, making this volume an indispensable resource for students, pastors, and church leaders.

Short Story Theories, 2015-06-29 Short Story Theories: A Twenty-First Century Perspective problematizes different aspects of the renewal and development of the short story. The aim of this collection is to explore the most recent theoretical issues raised by the short story as a genre and to offer theoretical and practical perspectives on the form. Centering as it does on specific authors and on the wider implications of short story poetics, this collection presents a new series of essays that both reinterpret canonical writers of the genre and advance new critical insights on the most recent trends and contemporary authors. Theorizations about genre reflect on different aspects of the short story from a multiplicity of perspectives and take the form of historical and aesthetic considerations, gender-centered accounts and examinations that attend to reader response theory, cognitive patterns, sociolinguistics, discourse analysis, postcolonial studies, postmodern techniques, and contemporary uses of minimalist forms. Looking ahead, this collection traces the evolution of the short story from Chaucer through the Romantic writings of Poe to the postmodern developments and into the twenty-first century. This volume will prove of interest to scholars and graduate students working in the fields of the short story and of literature in general. In addition, the readability and analytical transparency of these essays make them accessible to a more general readership interested in fiction.

Short Stories, Knowledge and the Supernatural Amândio Reis, 2022-07-11 This book proposes a comparative approach to the supernatural short stories of Machado de Assis Henry James and Guy de Maupassant It offers an alternative to predominantly novel centric and Anglo centric perspectives on literary pre modernism by investigating a transnational and multilingual connection between genre theme and theory i e between the modern short story the supernatural and the problem of knowledge Incorporating a close analysis of the literary texts into a discussion of their historical context the book argues that Machado James and Maupassant explore and reinvent the supernatural short story as a metafictional genre This modernized and innovative form allows them to challenge the dichotomies and conventions of realist and supernatural fiction inviting their past and present readers to question common assumptions on reality and literary representation
