The Happiest Refugee, Anh Do Angie Barillaro, 2014

The Little Refugee Anh Do, Suzanne Do, 2011-11-01 Anh Do's inspirational story about his family's incredible escape from war torn Vietnam and his childhood in Australia told especially for children The Happiest Refugee Anh Do, 2019 Anh Do nearly didn't make it to Australia. His entire family came close to losing their lives on the sea as they escaped from war-torn Vietnam in an overcrowded boat. But nothing—not murderous pirates nor the imminent threat of death by hunger, disease, or dehydration as they drifted for days—could quench their desire to make a better life in a country where freedom existed Comic Lives Laurie McNeill, John David Zuern, 2025-06-27 Comic Lives examines the dynamic intersection of life narrative and comedy within the theoretical and methodological frameworks of auto biography studies. In stand-up acts, comedy specials, podcasts, and print memoirs, autobiographical comedy offers a productive occasion for addressing key concerns in the discipline, in particular the challenges of representing trauma and the testimonial uses of personal stories. The contributors take up examples of autobiographical comedy in Australia, Canada, South Africa, and the United States to explore the question of how comedians transform difficult life experiences such as mental illness, the displacements of immigration, family conflicts, and institutional racism into texts and performances aimed at making people laugh. Thinking about auto biography and comedy, auto biography as comedy, and autobiographical comedy, this collection reflects on what auto biography brings to comedy, what affordances comedy offers, life narrative, the benefits and risks of playing life for laughs, and the capacities and limitations of the comic for resistance and counternarrative. This book will be of particular interest to students and researchers in fields such as literary studies, cultural studies, performance studies, and social theory, especially those exploring intersections of identity, trauma, and humor in contemporary media and performance. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue in Auto Biography Studies Migrant Nation Paul Longley Arthur, 2017-12-15 Focusing on particular historical blind spots by telling stories of individuals and groups that did not fit the favoured identity mould, the essays in Migrant Nation work within the gap between Australian image and experience and offer fresh insights into the other side of identity construction. The volume casts light on the hidden face of Australian identity and remembers the experiences of a wide variety of people who have generally been excluded, neglected, or simply forgotten in the long running quest to tell a unified story of Australian culture and identity. Drawing upon memories, letters, interviews, and documentary fragments, as well as rich archives, the authors have in common a commitment to give life to neglected histories and thus to include in an expanding and open-ended national narrative people who were cast as strangers in the place that was their home Anh Do's The Happiest Refugee Catriona Mills, 2021 Insight Text Guides take students into the deeper layers of meaning in a range of popular novels, plays, films, short story collections, and nonfiction texts. They are designed to develop detailed knowledge, in-depth understanding, and genuine insight into each text The Happiest Refugee: A Memoir Anh Do, 2010 Life Writing as World Literature Helga Lenart-Cheng, Ioana Luca, 2025-05-01 A global array of contributors explore the interplay between translation and circulation, mediums and materialities, and aesthetics and politics in how life writing is shaped by and becomes world literature. We live in the age of popular self-representation in that most people around the globe either produce or consume autobiographical material memoirs selfies blogs etc The current volume investigates this global phenomenon and examines how life writing and world literature converge Why do some personal stories get picked up translated circulated and taught in classrooms while others remain moored in local waters Do autobiographical stories that travel widely have something in common about them Or is it the other way around is it our notion of world literature that imposes uniform expectations on these diverse texts And what can we gain from studying these two fields in conjunction Life Writing as World Literature brings together experts who map regional and local autobiographical traditions from six continents These scholars explore the dynamic interplay between local and global aesthetics and sociopolitical concerns presenting case studies that include prison narratives from communist regimes Japanese diaries multilingual Caribbean memoirs Indian autobiographical comics and stories by Taiwanese domestic workers To understand how and why some personal stories enter global dissemination contributors inquire into translation market mechanisms and circulation patterns while also exploring the affordances of new media and materialities when recording contemporary lives Life Writing as World Literature brings a fresh perspective to both fields world literature and life writing opening up exciting avenues of research
