But on the other hand they feel that in order to get ahead they must compromise their values and manipulate the system by scheming lying and cheating In short they do school that is they are not really engaged with learning nor can they commit to such values as integrity and community The words and actions of these five students two boys and three girls from diverse ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds underscore the frustrations of being caught in a grade trap that pins future success to high grades and test scores Their stories raise critical questions that are too important for parents educators and community leaders to ignore Are schools cultivating an environment that promotes intellectual curiosity cooperation and integrity Or are they fostering anxiety deception and hostility Do today s schools inadvertently impede the very values they claim to embrace Is the success that current assessment practices measure the kind of success we want for our children
