Anchor Papers In Writing:

Assessing Writing, Teaching Writers Mary Ann Smith, Sherry Swain, 2016-12-23 Many writing teachers are searching for a better way to turn student writing into teaching and learning opportunities without being crushed under the weight of student papers This book introduces a rubric designed by the National Writing Project the Analytic Writing Continuum AWC that is making its way into classrooms across the country at all grade levels The authors use sample student writing and multiple classroom scenarios to illustrate how teachers have adapted this flexible tool to meet the needs of their students including using the AWC to teach revision give feedback direct peer to peer response groups and serve as a formative assessment guide This resource also discusses how to set up a local scoring session and how to use the AWC in professional development Book Features Introduces teachers to a powerful assessment system and teaching tool to support student writing achievement Offers a diagnostic tool for guiding students toward a common understanding of the qualities of good writing Provides ideas for helping students learn from models and give productive feedback to peers Illustrates ways to adjust the AWC to various grade levels and different teaching goals

Handbook of Research on Teacher Practices for Diverse Writing Instruction Hodges, Tracey S., 2022-05-20 The art and practice of writing is complex and multidimensional students often apply unique writing styles As such educators must apply focused teaching methods to nurture these unique forms of writing Educators must stay up to date with the practices for diverse writing instruction in order to best engage with a diverse classroom However resources related to writing typically do not focus on the depth and breadth of writing and there is a need for a resource that offers a comprehensive look at diverse writing instruction research The Handbook of Research on Teacher Practices for Diverse Writing Instruction provides a rich discussion of the issues perspectives and methods for writing instruction currently in use with an added lens focusing on diversity and equity It provides unique coverage on the topic of writing instruction for practical implementation within the classroom setting Covering topics such as student motivation curriculum development and content area instruction this major reference work is an essential resource for preservice teachers faculty and administration of K 12 and higher education academic libraries government officials school boards researchers and academicians

Teaching Writing Primer Paul L. Thomas, 2005 Until a few decades ago student writing stood as a distant third in the three R s Since the late 1970s however students have been asked to write more and teachers have been expected to teach writing more specifically In spite of this mandate however little has been done to prepare teachers for this shift in the curriculum This primer provides a brief history of the field as well as an exploration of what we now know about teaching Teachers entering the field as well as seasoned veterans will find how to foster student writers and to grow as writers themselves
