Children with a Star Deborah Dwork,1991-01-01 The book is based on hundreds of oral histories conducted in Europe and North America with survivors who were children in the Holocaust primary documentation uncovered by the author including diaries letters photographs and family albums and archival records Drawing on these sources Dwork reveals the feeling daily activities and perceptions of Jewish children who lived and died in the shadow of Holocaust She reconstructs and analyzes the many different experiences the children faced In the early years of Nazi domination they lived at home increasingly oppressed by rising anti-Semitism Later some went into hiding while others attempted to live openly on gentile papers As time passed more and more were forced into transit camps ghettos and death and slave labour camps Although nearly 90 percent of the Jewish children in Nazi Europe were murdered we learn in this history not of their deaths but of the circumstances of their lives The Ethical Contribution of Organizations to Society Michael Schwartz, Debra Comer, Howard Harris, 2015-11-09 Papers in this volume of Research in Ethical Issues in Organizations discuss what an organization provides to society and explains the ethical aspects of that contribution The volume also explores the ethics of the customer's response in society to what an organization provides including product boycotts and social approval or condemnation Shedding Light on the Darkness Nancy Ann Lauckner, Miriam Jokiniemi, 2000 Increasingly German Studies programs include courses on the Holocaust but suitable course materials are often difficult to find Teachers in higher education will therefore very much welcome this volume that examines and reflects both the practical and theoretical aspects of teaching about the Holocaust Though designed primarily by and for North American Germanists and German Studies specialists this book will prove no less useful for teachers in other countries and associated disciplines It presents and describes successful Holocaust related courses that have been developed and taught at U S and Canadian colleges and universities demonstrating the depth breadth and variety of such offerings while remaining mindful of the instructor's special moral responsibilities Reflecting as it does the innovative Holocaust pedagogy in North American German and German Studies this collection serves the needs of educators who wish to revise or update their existing Holocaust courses and of those who are seeking guidance ideas and resources to enable them to develop their first Holocaust course or unit Brain-Powered Lessons to Engage All Learners Level 6 LaVonna Roth, 2014-06-01 Do you struggle with creating engaging lessons for sixth grade students If so Brain Powered Lessons to Engage All Learners is your answer This resource provides fun appealing and rigorous lessons based on brain powered strategies The eight strategies included in these lessons are designed around how the brain learns as a foundation Students will look forward to using the strategies and learning new content ultimately resulting in higher student success Get ready to move your classroom to a whole new level of excitement and learning Anne Frank Remembered, the Story of the Woman who Helped to Hide the Frank Family : with Related Readings, 2002 Provides strategies background and suggested resources reproducible student pages to use before during and after reading Cover Quem traiu Anne Frank?
