All My Sons Full Script:

All My Sons Arthur Miller, 1974 THE STORY During the war Joe Keller and Steve Deever ran a machine shop which made airplane parts Deever was sent to prison because the firm turned out defective parts causing the deaths of many men Keller went free and made a lot of money The Film Scripts George Garrett, O. B. Hardison, Jane R. Gelfman, 1989 Charade The Apartment and The Misfits The Cambridge Companion to Arthur Miller Christopher Bigsby, 2010-04-22 Arthur Miller is regarded as one of the most important playwrights of the twentieth century and his work continues to be widely performed and studied around the world This updated Companion includes Miller's work since the publication of the first edition in 1997 the plays Mr Peters Connections Resurrection Blues and Finishing the Picture and key productions of his plays since his death in 2005 The chapter on Miller and the cinema has been completely revised to include new films and demonstrates that Miller's work remains an important source for filmmakers In addition to detailed analyses of plays including Death of a Salesman and The Crucible Miller's work is also placed within the context of the social and political climate of the time The volume closes with a bibliographic essay which reviews the key studies of Miller and also contains a detailed chronology of the work of this influential dramatist Rob Wagner's Beverly Hills Script, 1948 Arthur Miller's The Crucible Harold Bloom, 2008 A collection of critical essays that examines Arthur Miller's classic drama The Crucible and contains an historical overview of the play chronology of the life and works of the author and introduction by Harold Bloom J. Edgar Hoover Goes to the Movies John Sbardellati, 2012-05-01 Between 1942 and 1958 J Edgar Hoover's Federal Bureau of Investigation conducted a sweeping and sustained investigation of the motion picture industry to expose Hollywood's alleged subversion of the American Way through its depiction of social problems class differences and alternative political ideologies FBI informants their names still redacted today reported to Hoover's G men on screenplays and screenings of such films as Frank Capra's It's a Wonderful Life 1946 noting that this picture deliberately maligned the upper class attempting to show that people who had money were mean and despicable characters The FBI's anxiety over this film was not unique it extended to a wide range of popular and critical successes including The Grapes of Wrath 1940 The Best Years of Our Lives 1946 Crossfire 1947 and On the Waterfront 1954 In J Edgar Hoover Goes to the Movies John Sbardellati provides a new consideration of Hollywood's history and the post World War II Red Scare In addition to governmental intrusion into the creative process he details the efforts of left wing filmmakers to use the medium to bring social problems to light and the campaigns of their colleagues on the political right through such organizations as the Motion Picture Alliance for the Preservation of American Ideals to prevent dissemination of un American ideas and beliefs Sbardellati argues that the attack on Hollywood drew its motivation from a sincerely held fear that film content endangered national security by fostering a culture that would be at best apathetic to the Cold War struggle at best or at its worst conducive to communism at home Those who took part in Hollywood's Cold War struggle whether on the left or right shared one common trait a belief that the movies could serve as engines for social change This strongly held assumption explains why the stakes were so high and ultimately why Hollywood became one of the most important ideological battlegrounds of the Cold War The Edward G. Robinson Encyclopedia Robert Beck,2015-09-16 Edward G Robinson a 1930s cinema icon had an acting career that spanned more than 60 years After a brush with silent films he rose to true celebrity status in sound feature films and went on to take part in radio and television performances then back to Broadway and on the road in live theatre This work documents Robinson s every known public performance or appearance listing co workers source material background and critical commentary The entries include feature films documentaries short subjects cartoons television and radio productions live theatre presentations narrations pageants and recordings Also included are entries relating to his life and career ranging from his wives to his art collection Scriptwork David Kahn,Donna Breed,1995 Most importantly they delineate the parameters of the relationship between the director and the playwright offering proven methods to help the playwright and to facilitate the healthy development of the script Catalogue of the Book Library of the British Film Institute, London, England: Title catalogue, G-Z.
