Written and peer reviewed by experts in the culture, discussed each chapter in this groundbreaking text covers a distinct region or culture and discusses the various contexts that contribute to nutrition and health lifestyles, eating patterns, ethnic foods, menu planning, communication, verbal and non verbal, and more. This book is consistent with The American Dietetic Association's Cultural Competence Strategic Plan.

Inhaled Delivery Systems for the Treatment of Asthma and COPD Donald A. Mahler, Rajiv Dhand, 2023-07-19 Inhaled therapies form the cornerstone for treatment of patients with asthma and COPD. Evolving technology has resulted in availability of a wide range of devices for delivery of inhaled drugs. The four different delivery systems: pressurized metered dose inhalers, slow mist inhalers, dry powder inhalers, and nebulizers are unique in design and require distinct inhalational instructions for correct use. This book provides current information about inhalation devices including their advantages and disadvantages with guidance for optimal techniques of use. The book emphasizes appropriate selection of inhalation devices based on patient and health care professional factors as well as device attributes that allow selection of the right medication in the right inhalation device at the right time for the right patient.

Key Features: Addresses the objective of precision medicine: the right medication in the right inhaler device at the right time. Inputs by international thought leaders who have published widely on inhaled medications and/or inhaled delivery systems for clinicians, trainees, and respiratory therapists. Discusses the development of audio-based systems and smart inhalers for patient monitoring.

Malta in the European Union Mark Harwood, 2016-05-13 Malta has bucked the trend of its EU Mediterranean neighbours in many ways. This smallest of EU states barely dipped into recession during the global financial crisis and remains a stable member of the Eurozone whilst also having one of the lowest infringement rates and highest transposition of EU law records amongst the 28 member states. Providing the first comprehensive study of Malta's complex road to EU membership, this book looks at the impact of membership on the country's political structures and processes and explains the principal factors that have conditioned the country's Europeanization experience. Reflecting Malta's unique and often contentious road to membership, the book explores the historical context and outlines how Maltese processes and policies have changed since membership and whether a causative link exists between these changes and Malta's membership of the EU. A wide range of primary and secondary sources facilitate the study complemented by a series of interviews with a broad range of Malta's political and social actors as well as individuals from EU institutions. This depth of analysis enables a holistic view of Malta's first decade of EU membership and helps establish the fundamental characteristics of Malta's unique Europeanization experience.
