Anthony's Attitude English Edition:

The discursive role of adjectives in the translation of Metropolitan Anthony Bloom's religious texts

Mona-Ancuța IONESCU, 2023-01-01 The book examines the ways in which adjectives contribute to the realization of the various language functions in several of Metropolitan Anthony Bloom's 1914-2003 spirituality works and transcribed talks as well as in their Romanian translated versions. In particular, it aims at offering an application of the communication theory of Jakobson (1960, 1987) to Metropolitan Anthony's contemporary religious discourse and an investigation of the underlying lexical semantic and pragmatic relations carried out by the adjectival class in order for discourse aim to be achieved. It also seeks to reveal the role of adjectives in the process of translation from English into Romanian, more specifically in preserving the source text functions in the target language. To this end, the study engages in an analysis of the hierarchical communicative functions in the corpus as well as of the role played by adjectives both in the realization and transfer of the respective language functions. The present book, which may be of equal interest to researchers in linguistics and to theologians, demonstrates not only the pivotal role of adjectives in fulfilling communicative purposes specific to religious communication but also their cohesive discourse role in Metropolitan Anthony's legacy. At the same time, it highlights the outstanding status of the adjectival class in establishing the functional cognitive correspondence between the source text and the target text in translation.

Gender in Anthony Trollope's Novels Deborah Denenholz Morse, 2016-12-05 Bringing together established critics and exciting new voices, The Politics of Gender in Anthony Trollope's Novels offers original readings of Trollope that recognize and repay his importance as source material for scholars working in diverse fields of literary and cultural studies. As the editors observe in their provocative introduction, Trollope more than any of his contemporaries is studied by scholars from disciplines outside literary studies. The contributors here draw together work from economics, colonialism and ethnicity studies, gender studies, new historicism, liberalism, legal studies and politics that convincingly argues for the eminence of Trollope's writings as a vehicle for the theoretical explorations of Victorian culture that currently predominate. The essays variously examine imperial and postcolonial themes in the context of economic, cultural, aesthetic and demographic influences, show how gender-sensitive readings expose Trollope's critique of capitalism's influence, address Trollope and sexuality in the context of queer studies, the law, archetypal constructions and classical feminism, and offer new approaches to narrative theory through examination of Victorian understandings of male and female psychology. Regenia Gagnier's concluding chapter revisits the collection's critical strands and reflects on the implications for future studies of Trollope.

Anthony Collins: The Man and His Works James O'Higgins, 2012-12-06 This book is the study of a man who caught my interest both because of his own character and of the variety of his activities It is an attempt to see him in his relationship intellectual and literary with the Europe of his day to gauge his position in the development of Seventeenth and Eighteenth century thought to examine the origins of his ideas and their effect and to place him in the social context of the England of the early Eighteenth century The period in which he lived coming at the beginning of the Enlightenment was seminal for our own world and the man himself is of contemporary significance because of the similarity of his outlook if not of his beliefs to that of many today He was at the centre of the major theological controversy of the Seventeenth century and was one of the most contentious figures of his time I would like to acknowledge my obligation to the scholars and librarians who have assisted me in producing this work to Dr E A O Whiteman of Lady Margaret Hall Oxford and to Mrs M Kneale late of the same College to Bodley's librarian Dr R Shackleton to Dr D Rogers Mr D G Neill and to the staff of the Bodleian especially those who work in Duke Humphrey to the librarians of Christ Church All Souls St John's Wadham Exeter and Corpus Christi Colleges Oxford to Mr F G Emmison Miss H E T
