

ANTIBULLYING SKITS

Directions for teacher: Have students get into groups. Then, cut the scenarios where the dotted lines are. Give 1 copy to each group and have them play out the given scenario and what they would do to positively and correctly handle the situation.

Scenario 1. You have a close-knit group of 5 in your friend group. However, one of your friends, Clayton, has started being kind of rude to you and your other friend. He makes fun of you a lot, hits you and gets mad at you both for everything. Clayton says it's all a joke, but it's just not funny anymore. It feels hard to be their friend and you and your other friend agree that Clayton has taken it too far.

Scenario 2. You've had a crush on someone in your 8th period and they asked if you wanted to sit with them during lunch today. You say yes and meet up after you grab your plate. While you're sitting with your crush and their friends, they start making fun of your next-door neighbor, Clarence, who you've known since preschool. They start getting louder and louder and eventually Clarence can hear everything that your crush and their friends are saying. You feel bad for Clarence but don't want to look bad in front of your crush.
.....

Scenario 3. Someone from your school made an Instagram "hate page" about a teacher that you really like. They take and find pictures of this teacher and post them on the page with hurtful captions like, "like this picture if you want this teacher fired" and "I cannot sit in class another day looking at this ugly face." You feel like it's wrong to not say anything, but you're scared that you'll get bullied for reporting it if you tell an adult.
.....

Scenario 4. A boy in your grade, Jordan, wears the same clothes every day. You heard him say once that his family doesn't have a lot of money, but you never thought anything of it. That is, until you and your classmate Karla were put into a group with Jordan. When you all get into the group together, Karla says right in front of Jordan, "That sucks that we have to work with the stinky kid." You see that Jordan shrinks down and gets tears in his eyes.
.....

Scenario 5. The "popular girl" in your grade always comes off very passive-aggressive. She comes up to you and asks what book you're reading and then turns to laugh with her friends after you answer. She then asks you if she can borrow your shirt sometime, even though you know she's not being serious. She keeps asking you questions but comes off disingenuous and sarcastic.
