totality of Boyd's vision. Indeed every novel is a part of this totality and the totality is more than a mere sum of the novels. The reciprocal relationship between the part and the whole is the crux of novel criticism and the book has given due justice to this aspect. Another important feature of the book is the analysis of the postmodernist element in Boyd's novels. This critical framework can be used to analyse the postmodernist element in the contemporary Indian novel in English. Even going further it can be used to analyse the Postmodernist element in the contemporary Marathi novel. A thesis is really acknowledged when it becomes a source material for the future researchers and comparatists. Mr Latane's book has that potential. I heartily wish a good reception to the book. Dr Prakash Deshpande, Kejkar, Former Professor of English, Shivaji University, Kolhapur.
