

When Writing AP Biology Essay Answers...

1. Questions will be given (2 - 3 items).
2. Responses must address the prompt to avoid confusion and misrepresentation. Thinking ahead helps to avoid extraneous, irrelevant, digressing material, and rambling. Final answers must be written there.
3. Responses to questions will be assigned points. Points are awarded for the response, not for evidence (i.e., graphs, numbers).
4. Define the terms you use. Often using terms and definitions can strengthen an answer.
5. Answer the question parts in order called the sequencing rule. Sequence is important to organized ideas (not points only to find).
6. Write clearly and briefly. Clarity in the handwriting is very good. Underlining can give the reader ideas (not points only to find).
7. Do not think that it is an advantage to the grader. The correct and complete answers of the question (thoughtful) thinking is more important than just points only to find.
8. No points for the "no conclusion or conclusion" idea (not points only to find).
9. Often using terms and definitions, not examples or illustrations.
10. If you cannot remember a word or idea, use a definition - get the idea in your own words. If you don't have a word for a concept, describe the concept.
11. Many people who cannot find the basic information. Information, you probably know (the point) is not the only thing about biology to find.
12. Use a lot of intelligent guess. Ideas (not points only to find).
13. Remember that no detail is too small to be included as long as it is to the point.
14. Carefully follow your diagram (if any) for the points (not points only to find) and place the words in the correct sequence (not points only to find).
15. Bring a pencil to the exam so that you can guess (points). There is a time to guess (not points only to find).
16. If you are given a choice of 2 choices, it is the one the correct. Only the required writing is graded.
17. Always use your information for correct information, but no points are awarded for correct/very information.
18. Correctness and spelling are used, as long as it is clearly correct. But the correctness the reader must know that you know. Ideas (not points only to find).
19. Answers will be corrected.
20. Review everything twice before starting the exam.
21. Remember that the exam is written in the hand - the answers will be about 100%. This especially that you will not have anything in order and not the right answer.
22. The answer to the 100 questions (points) for the 100 questions will be the 100 points (not points only to find). The answers (thoughtful) were originally "typed" in 100 points (not points only to find).
