

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would certainly gain access to rockets that were better. They would also have delivery of the atomic bomb.	They might develop better in case of an emergency, but they didn't know if anyone thought, planned, or even needed all that kind of thing.
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not really.	Some people in the U.S. were not interested and also disagreed.
4. Would what the Americans asked about rockets and satellites be a serious matter?	Yes, the government had to recognize it was a serious matter.	Yes, because people were concerned and would not take a casual attitude like the Soviets.

2. Suppose the agreement simply to stop building new weapons.

What would be the main reason for this?

It might be that the weapons were really bad.

It would be because the government did not want to pay for them.

It is possible that the agreement was that the U.S. would not build them.
