came into the world and captured her father's heart But because of alcohol Emma's father was this fierce tyrant to his wife and his boys Nonetheless nothing could ever displease him when it came to his sweet girl Emma However when her Papa finally left for another woman Emma was left at a tender age to tend for her family a role she took upon herself with determination and dedication Life was hard but Emma faced every trial with hope that as long as she did not give up life would get better She was a dreamer with a plan as her tenacity and hard work proved Against all odds she would love a man that she was not intended to have by the prevalent laws of culture and society But how could he give her up when his heart vowed from the first time he laid eyes on her that life was meaningless without her There were countless obstacles they had to overcome to be together As a mother she discovered that motherhood was a privilege as much as a sacrifice a role she cherished most As a wife she was her husband's greatest supporter even when she fought not to at times Together they would discover the one truth they both love and agree upon the restored Gospel She was an example of patience understanding compassion faith and unconditional love She had the capacity to give of herself and touch lives care for and accept all without discrimination She was a cherished friend to all that knew her rich or poor popular or disliked literate or ignorant She loved every soul and everyone loved her How could they not She gave abundantly and loved genuinely Thus she was her family's shining star and to others a true friend

This is Volume I of two volumes American Silhouettes is primarily a study in human character in its dealing with the adversity of life The setting is America during the last quarter of the twentieth century More specifically it focuses on the struggle of two generations of a small African American family whose destiny encounters more than its share of horrific tribulations It is a window on life love happiness suffering and death of the members of this small vulnerable resilient family from the South that moves to Washington D C for a better life only to find a very short interlude of happiness followed by a deep plunge into another cycle of trauma and despair not death though that would be too easy and when death finally does come it is a liberation of the body and soul The saga continues with the cycle of misfortune repeating itself in a new age a new generation with the same finality as if their destiny had been wickedly predefined From Bridgeville SC to Washington DC and from Rome to Dakar their saga brings to light the evil and virtuousness of man in its most natural occurrence as a part of daily life The story brings together various individuals of different and sometimes opposite background and describes either the passions of their encounters or the clashes resulting from their conflicts It analyses the most wonderful passions of love beauty and happiness and juxtaposes the horrible ugliness of hate and abuse It incorporates the duty and responsibility of man within the context of our society and dwells into the aberrations of its marginal sector It is an interweaved matrix of emotional extremes It demonstrates that evil has no color no race no religion and that it transcends the social fabric of our society
