Anything Goes The Autobiography:

Anything Goes John Barrowman,2009-10-10 Anything Goes is revelatory and insightful told with real heart and characteristic Barrowman charm This is a wonderful tale of how one boy achieved his dreams Anything Goes Ethan Mordden,2013-10 Offers a history of American musical theater from the 1920s through to the 1970s and includes such famous works as Oklahoma The Red Mill and Porgy and Bess ANYTHING GOES MARTIN DeC HAYNES

F.R.C.S,2011-01-04 Anything Goes is an unusual and a hilarious collection of short stories by the author Martin Dec Haynes F R C S who is also a poet a surgeon golfer philatelist and humorist Because of the author s vast working experience lots of his stories have a medical theme but you can rest assured that coming from Haynes they are not run of the mill nay rather they are extremely esoteric and virtually beyond belief Near the end of the book the writing style takes a detour and a few yarns are narrated as if by idiot types who misspell words or some of the words are written as they are pronounced adding greatly to the farcical effect The last story is about a young man who leaves his wife behind in The Islands and goes to London to study medicine successfully then he divorces his island wife from a distance and takes a spanking new English wife He is now about to return to his native island but his grandfather is waiting at the airport with a shotgun to blow out his brains Fortunately other family members are able to avert the disaster All in all the collection is a riproaring read The Phenomenology of Autobiography Arnaud Schmitt,2017-05-08 Taking a fresh look at the state of autobiography as a genre The Phenomenology of Autobiography Making it Real takes a deep dive into the experience of the reader Dr Schmitt argues that current trends in the field of life writing have taken the focus away from the text and the initial purpose of autobiography as a means for the author to communicate with a reader and narrate an experience The study puts autobiography back into a communicational context and putting forth the notion that one of the reasons why life writing can so often be aesthetically unsatisfactory or difficult to distinguish from novels is because it should not be considered as a literary genre but as a modality with radically different rules and means of evaluation In other words not only is autobiography radically different from fiction due to its referentiality but first and foremost it should be read differently

Anything Goes Lucy Moore,2015-09-10 Bracketed by the catastrophes of the Great War and the Wall Street Crash 1920s America was a place of drama tension and hedonism It glittered and seduced jazz flappers wild all night parties the birth of Hollywood and a glamorous gangster led crime scene flourishing under prohibition But the period was also punctuated by momentous events the political show trials of Sacco and Vanzetti the huge Ku Klux Klan march down Washington DC s Pennsylvania Avenue and it produced a splendid array of writers musicians and film stars from F Scott Fitzgerald to Bessie Smith and Charlie Chaplin The Musical William Everett,2011-06-02 The musical whether on stage or screen is undoubtedly one of the most recognizable musical genres yet one of the most perplexing What are its defining features How does it negotiate multiple socio cultural economic spaces Is it a popular tradition Is it a commercial enterprise Is it a sophisticated cultural product and signifier This research guide includes more than 1 400 annotated entries related to the genre as it appears on stage and screen It includes reference works monographs articles anthologies and websites related to the musical Separate sections are devoted to sub genres such as operetta and megamusical non English language musical genres in the U S traditions outside the U S individual shows creators performers and performance The second edition reflects the notable increase in musical theater scholarship since 2000 In addition to printed materials it includes multimedia and electronic resources

Autobiography in Black and Brown Michael Nieto Garcia,2014-11-15 Richard Wright was the grandson of slaves Richard Rodriguez the son of immigrants One black the other brown each author prominently displays his race in the title of his autobiography Black Boy and Brown Wright was a radical left winger while Rodriguez is widely viewed as a reactionary Despite their differences Michael Nieto Garcia points out the two share a preoccupation with issues of agency class struggle ethnic identity the search for community and the quest for social justice Garcia s study the first to compare these two widely read writers argues that ethnic autobiography reflects the complexity of ethnic identity revealing a narrative self that is bound to a visible ethnicity yet is also protean and free These autobiographies according to Garcia exemplify the tensions and contradictions inherent in identity In their presentation of the self we see the rejection not only of essentialized notions of ethnic authenticity but also of any conception of an ethnic self that is not also communally derived The image reflected in the mirror of autobiography also reminds us that consciousness itself is altered by our reading and that the construction of modern ethnicity is shaped to a considerable extent by print culture

Qualitative Gerontology Graham D. Rowles,2001-09-24 The authors provide a contemporary perspective on the status of qualitative research in gerontology The second edition examines recent trends in the application of qualitative methodologies and the emergence of new qualitative techniques such as focus groups studies of personal histories and the use of photography Chapters include discussions of critical and feminist perspectives practice issues ethical issues and the contribution of qualitative research to the progress of science

Autobiography and Questions of Gender Shirley Neuman,2015-08-14 Originally published in 1991 Addressing the ways in which the ideology of gender and its social construction determine autobiographical self representations the essays here consider several women s works in the light of the social and historical conditions which enabled their production Some examine diaries as a feminine form and ask about the ways in which thematic content such as childbirth can or cannot be represented in diaries and public discourse at different historical junctures Others show the pressures of gender roles and how they have led to new genres in which self representation is often a refraction of the representation of others With the tools of gender theory the representation of hermaphroditism masculinity and male bodies is analysed and the ways in which gender intersects with racial sexual and class ideologies is also looked at in seeing autobiography as a form of agency in self construction

Biography across the Digitized Globe ,2025-02-27 This volume is dedicated to Professor Hans Renders founder of the Biography Institute of the University of Groningen the Netherlands

Throughout his academic career Renders witnessed a reflexive turn in historical research biographers became more open about the limitations of their sources and the subjective nature of their selection Over this same period however the availability of digital sources has increased exponentially which has profound implications for biographical research and the transnational framework used to approach the genre Through its thirteen thought provoking essays this work seeks to make an intervention in Biography Studies by bringing the well developed reflexive tradition to bear on the pressing challenge of proliferating digitized sources
