

Essay questions in exams

Writing an essay in an exam is similar in many ways to writing an essay for an assignment: it needs to be clearly structured, your ideas need to be linked and supported by evidence.

Read the question through carefully to make sure you are answering what has been asked. Missing one part of a question can cost you a lot of marks.

Make a quick plan of the points you want to include in your answer.

Use essay structure: introduction, points, conclusion. But, if you run out of time, it can be a good idea to write notes.

Get right to the point from the beginning. Use the words from the question to write your first sentence.
For example:

Question: What do you think is the most important intercultural communication issue in New Zealand?

First sentence: At present in New Zealand the most important intercultural communication issue is....

Remember to include one idea per paragraph and to begin each paragraph with a clear topic sentence.

Make sure your writing is legible.

Grammar, punctuation and spelling are not as important as in an assignment but should still be of a good standard.
