Transforming Early Childhood in England: Claire Cameron, Peter Moss, 2020-08-03 Early childhood education and care has been a political priority in England since 1997 when government finally turned its attention to this long neglected area Public funding has increased policy initiatives have proliferated and at each general election political parties aim to outbid each other in their offer to families Transforming Early Childhood in England Towards a Democratic Education argues that despite this attention the system of early childhood services remains flawed and dysfunctional National discourse is dominated by the cost and availability of childcare at the expense of holistic education while a hotchpotch of fragmented provision staffed by a devalued workforce struggles with a culture of targets and measurement With such deep rooted problems early childhood education and care in England is beyond minor improvements In the context of austerity measures affecting many young families transformative change is urgent
