Kanungo,2018-12-24 Electoral democracy combines the ideas and practices of warfare and welfare where both work in tandem as near synonyms India s robust electoral democracy exemplifies this combination in diverse forms Critically analysing the 2014 Parliamentary elections beyond the seduction of immediacy and bare cold statistics this book puts human subjectivity at the centre of election studies and through an anthropological sociological approach makes lives human and non human lived and unlived or unlivable central to any understanding of elections and democracy Crafting a new comprehensive approach this volume looks at the 2014 elections in relation to the changing nature and forms of elections and democracy globally Coming from multidisciplinary backgrounds the contributors to this volume use ethnographic observations to open up a space for new theoretical and methodological reflections on the role of media in Indian elections the shift to the right in 2014 and its consequences the significance of traditional Hindu spaces such as the river Ganga in BJP s victory the role of gurus like Baba Ramdev and the electoral choices available to and exercised by the minorities among others A Burdensome Experiment Christien Philmarc Tompkins,2024-10-22 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina the New Orleans public school board fired nearly 7 500 teachers and employees In the decade that followed the city created the first urban public school system in the United States to be entirely contracted out to private management Veteran educators collectively referred to as the backbone of the city s Black middle class were replaced by younger less experienced white teachers who lacked historical ties to the city In A Burdensome Experiment Christien Philmarc Tompkins argues that the privatization of New Orleans schools has made educators into a new kind of racialized worker As school districts across the nation backslide on school integration Tompkins asks who exactly deserves to teach our children The struggle over this question exposes the inherent antiblackness of charter school systems and the unequal burdens of school choice Making Better Lives Johannes Lenhard,2022-05-13 In this ethnographic study Johannes Lenhard observes the daily practices routines and techniques of people who are sleeping rough on the streets of Paris The book focusses on their survival practises their short term desires and hopes how they earn money through begging how they choose the best place to sleep at night and what role drugs and alcohol play in their lives The book also follows people through different institutional settings including a homeless day centre a needle exchange a centre for people with alcohol problems and a homeless shelter

Morphodynamics Adolf Seilacher, Alan D. Gishlick, 2014-11-05 Morphodynamics is defined as the unique interaction among environment functional morphology developmental constraints phylogeny and time all of which shape the evolution of life These fabricational patterns and similarities owe their regularity not to a detailed genetic program but to extrinsic factors which may be mechanical chemical or b

After the Vote Was Won Katherine H. Adams, Michael L. Keene, 2014-01-10 Because scholars have traditionally examined the efforts of American suffragists only in relation to electoral politics the history books have largely missed the real story of what these women achieved far outside the realm of voting reform Though Stanton Anthony and Mott are the best known figures of the woman s suffrage movement all were dead more than a decade before women actually achieved the vote Women like Alice Paul Louisine Havemeyer and Mary Church Terrell carried on their work putting their campaign experiences to work long after the 19th Amendment was ratified This book tells the story of how these women made an indelible mark on American history in fields ranging from education to art science publishing and social activism

Teaching History and the Changing Nation State Robert Guyver, 2016-02-11 Capitalizing on the current movement in history education to nurture a set of shared methodologies and perspectives this text looks to break down some of the obstacles to transnational understanding in history focusing on pedagogy to embed democratic principles of inclusion inquiry multiple interpretations and freedom of expression Four themes which are influencing the broadening of history education to a globalized community of practice run throughout Teaching History and the Changing Nation State pedagogy democracy and dialogue the nation politics and transnational dimensions landmarks with questions shared histories shared commemorations and re evaluating past denials The contributors use the same pedagogical language in a global debate about history teaching and learning to break down barriers to search for shared histories and mutual understanding They explore contemporary topics including The Gallipoli Campaign in World War I transformative approaches to a school history curriculum and the nature of federation

Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials
