Foreign investors often sustain injuries during international armed conflicts This book sets out to explore how effective investment treaty protections really are It designs an analytical framework that purports to explain and evaluate how effective and appropriate the application of the investment treaty regime is in times of armed conflict Interactions Between EU Law and International Law Tamás Molnár,Ramses A Wessel,2024-10-03 Juxtaposing perspectives this insightful book brings together the various dimensions of the relationship between EU law and international law As the multifaceted interplay between these two legal orders has become increasingly complex with expanding EU policy areas and the development of the EU as a global normative actor this book offers a timely contribution to this important field of study

Black Women and International Law Gabrielle Kirk McDonald,2015-04-30 Explores the manifold relationship between black women and international law highlighting the historic and contemporary ways they have influenced and been influenced International Crimes Guénaél Mettraux,2019 This book discusses in detail the law of genocide its definition elements normative status and relationship to the other core international crimes It is the first in a four volume compendium from Judge Mettraux on the four core international crimes The Transformation of Targeted Killing and International Order Martin Senn,Jodok Troy,2020-05-21 This comprehensive volume addresses the important question of whether and how the current transformation of targeted killing is transforming the global international order The age old practice of targeted killing has undergone a profound transformation since the turn of the millennium States resort to it more frequently especially in the context of counter terrorism operations The rapid development of surveillance and drone technologies facilitates targeted killing missions and states are starting to slowly abandon their policies of secrecy and denial with regard to this form of violence To answer this question the volume introduces a theoretical framework that conceives the maintenance and transformation of international order as a dynamic triangular process between violence discourse and the institutions that make up the international order It then sheds light on different parts of this triangular process the reinterpretation of international law to legitimize targeted killing the contestation between state and non state actors over the development of a new targeted killing norm the emergence of targeted killing in the context of changes in the broader normative context of international order and the impact of new technologies in particular autonomous weapons systems on the future of targeted killing practices and international order This book was originally published as a special issue of Contemporary Security Policy Heritage Destruction, Human Rights and International Law Amy Strecker,Joseph Powderly,2023-07-24 This book brings together prominent scholars in the fields of international cultural heritage law and heritage studies to scrutinise the various branches of international law and governance dealing with heritage destruction from human rights perspectives both in times of armed conflict as well as in peace Importantly it also examines cases of heritage destruction that may not be intentional but rather the consequence of large scale infrastructural development or resource extraction Chapters deal with high profile cases from Europe North Africa The Middle East Latin America and the Caribbean with a substantial afterword on heritage destruction in Ukraine Research Handbook on the Brussels Ibis Regulation Peter Mankowski, 2020-03-28 This timely Research Handbook addresses the cutting edges of the Brussels Ibis Regulation in particular its place within the overall system of EU law and its adaptations in response to lawsuits or the needs of particular industries Featuring original research by leading academics from across Europe chapters take a systematic approach to examining a broad variety of topics in relation to this analysing the most recent developments in legislation and practice and providing an outlook on the future of this field of EU law European Yearbook of International Economic Law 2021 Jelena Bäuml, Christina Binder, Marc Bungenberg, Markus Krajewski, Giesela Rühl, Christian J. Tams, Jörg Philipp Terhechte, Andreas R. Ziegler, 2022-07-06 Volume 12 of the EYIEL focuses on The Future of Dispute Settlement in International Economic Law While new forms of dispute settlement are emerging others are in deep crisis The volume starts off with reflections on Dispute Settlement and the World Trade Organisation most prominently the crisis of the Appellate Body but also addressing international intellectual property law and the African Continental Free Trade Area This is followed by a section on Dispute Settlement and Investment Protection International Investment Law which includes articles on the summary dismissal of claims the margin of appreciation doctrine the use of conciliation to settle sovereign debt disputes and contract based arbitration in light of Achmea and Hagia Sophia at ICSID Further contributions consider the emerging role of commercial courts the dejudicialization of international economic law dispute settlement in the UK EU Withdrawal Agreement reference mechanisms in dispute resolution clauses and UNCLOS Comparative Legal Frameworks for Pre-Implantation Embryonic Genetic Interventions Pin Lean Lau, 2019-08-01 This book discusses the possibilities for the use of international human rights law and specifically international biomedical laws related to the protection of human rights and the human genome to provide a guiding framework for the future regulation of genetic modifications applied to human embryos and other precursor materials when these are made with the aim of implanting a genetically altered embryo in a woman The significance and timeliness of the work derives from the recent availability of CRISPR Cas9 and other gene editing tools and from lacunae in international law regarding the legality of embryo modification with these tools and appropriate governance structures for the oversight of resulting practices The emergence of improved genome editing tools like CRISPR Cas9 holds the promise of eradicating genetic diseases in the near future But its possible future applications with Pre Implantation Genetic Diagnosis PGD raises a plethora of legal and ethical concerns about remaking future human beings The work aims to address an urgent call to embed these rising concerns about biomedical advancements into the fundamental tailoring of legal systems Suitable regulatory approaches coupled with careful reflection of global biomedical laws and individual constitutional systems must be explored The Book analyzes the impact of reproductive biomedical technologies on the legal and ethical dimensions of regulatory frameworks in selected constitutional systems like the US the UK Australia Malaysia and Thailand Employing a comparative law methodology the work reveals a dynamic intersection

between legal cultures socio philosophical reasoning and the development of a human rights based framework in bio political studies Navigating towards a truly internationalized biomedical approach to emerging technologies it presents an understanding why a renegotiation and reinvigoration of a contemporary and new universal shared values system in the international human rights discourse is now necessary The Hero: Book Two David Rubin,2015-12-29 In ancient Greece the first superhero was born Heracles the son of Zeus came into the world with strength charm and a fighting spirit The Hero Book Two continues David Rubin's epic tale of Heracles in a postmodern look at the Twelve Labors and the champion's fateful doom The story delves deep into his life revealing those who would wish him harm on his meteoric rise to stardom his tumultuous love affairs and his incredibly heroic feats Rubin's eclectic style will change the way you look at one of the most important Greek myths Governing Arctic Change Kathrin Keil,Sebastian Knecht,2016-12-09 This volume explores the governance of the transforming Arctic from an international perspective Leading and emerging scholars in Arctic research investigate the international causes and consequences of contemporary Arctic developments and assess how both state and non state actors respond to crucial problems for the global community Long treated as a remote and isolated region climate change and economic prospects have put the Arctic at the forefront of political agendas from the local to the global level and this book tackles the variety of involved actors institutional politics relevant policy issues as well as political imaginaries related to a globalizing Arctic It covers new institutional forms of various stakeholder engagement on multiple levels governance strategies to combat climate change that affect the Arctic region sooner and more strongly than other regions the pros and cons of Arctic resource development for the region and beyond and local and trans boundary pollution concerns Given the growing relevance of the Arctic to international environmental energy and security politics the volume helps to explain how the region is governed in times of global nexuses multi level politics and multi stakeholderism The Mutual Agreement Procedure in International Taxation Juliane Gröper,2020-02-19 The globalization of economic and multinational business structures has exacerbated the problem of substantive overlapping national tax laws in recent decades Double taxation has a negative impact on international economic transactions because it leads to the suboptimal allocation of capital and affects the cross border exchange of goods Therefore measures are needed to avoid international double taxation The number of international Mutual Agreement Procedures is rising accordingly However the Mutual Agreement Procedure is not always effective and is often evaded by developing countries in particular According to the author the deficits of the Mutual Agreement Procedure should be mitigated by procedural and administrative rules These can be based on experiences gained from other areas of law with cross border economic activities Moreover the use of modern technologies or non binding dispute resolution mechanisms can enhance the efficiency of the Mutual Agreement Procedure The procedural and administrative rules should not only make the procedure more attractive for states and especially developing countries but also improve the position of the taxpayer International Crimes: Volume I: Genocide Guénaél Mettraux,2019-06-18 Judge Mettraux's four volume compendium International Crimes Law and Practice will provide the most detailed and authoritative account to date of the law of international crimes. It is a scholarly tour de force providing a unique blend of academic rigour and an insight into the practice of international criminal law. The compendium is unrivalled in its breadth and depth covering almost a century of legal practice, dozens of jurisdictions, national and international, thousands of decisions and judgments and hundreds of cases. This first volume discusses in detail the law of genocide, its definition, elements, normative status and relationship to the other core international crimes. While the book is an invaluable tool for academics and researchers, it is particularly suited to legal practitioners, guiding the reader through the practical and evidential challenges associated with the prosecution of international crimes.
