2014 November The 14 Physical Science Grade Limpopo:

Rural Education Across the World Simone White, Jayne Downey, 2021-03-22 This book brings together authors from United States South Africa United Kingdom China Canada and Australia to provide insights and case studies from across a range of contexts to explore the interplay between the notions of rurality innovation and education The book reveals a hopeful and resilient approach to innovative rural education and scholarship collectively and provides important evidence to speak against an often deficit view of rural education Three patterns are revealed namely the importance of place attentive strategies the importance of joined up alliances to maximise resources and networks and finally the need to utilize alternative methodologies and frameworks that have a starting point of difference rather than deficit for any rural initiative or approach By drawing from international examples and responding in innovative ways to rural education challenges this book provides an opportunity to share international insights into innovations interventions and partnerships that promote and support rural education in its broadest sense

Water is Life Hellum, Anne, Kameri-Mbote, Patricia, 2015-10-19 This book approached water and sanitation as an African gender and human rights issue Empirical case studies from Kenya Malawi South Africa and Zimbabwe show how coexisting international national and local regulations of water and sanitation respond to the ways in which different groups of rural and urban women gain access to water for personal domestic and livelihood purposes The authors who are lawyers sociologists political scientists and anthropologists explore how women cope in contexts where they lack secure rights and participation in water governance institutions formal and informal The research shows how women as producers of family food rely on water from multiple sources that are governed by community based norms and institutions which recognise the right to water for livelihood How these common pool water resources due to protection gaps in both international and national law are threatened by large scale development and commercialisation initiatives facilitated through national permit systems is a key concern The studies demonstrate that existing water governance structures lack mechanisms which make them accountable to poor and vulnerable water users on the ground most importantly women The findings thus underscore the need to intensify measures to hold states accountable not just in water services provision but in assuring the basic human right to clean drinking water and sanitation and also to protect water for livelihoods
