Michael Gray,2016-10-12 We have an uneasy relationship with the relentless deluge of information gushing out of academia and our media outlets To turn it off is escapist but to attempt to cognitively grapple with it is overwhelming In Unforgettable Enabling Deep and Durable Learning a nationally recognized master teacher gives professors and their students the means to chart a clear path through this information explosion Humans crave explanatory patterns and this book enables teachers to think deeply about their academic disciplines to find and articulate their core explanatory principles and to engage their students in a compelling way of thinking An alternative title for this book could be Why the Best College Teachers Do What They Do because the author articulates a compelling rationale that will equip faculty to create and deliver transformative courses Students in transformative courses grapple with essential questions and gain mental muscle that equips them for real world challenges Beyond the Bubble Test Linda Darling-Hammond, Frank Adamson,2014-06-16 Performance assessment is a hot topic in school systems and educators continue to analyze its costs benefits and feasibility as a replacement for high stakes testing Until now researchers and policymakers have had to dig to find out what we know and what we still have to learn about performance assessment Beyond the Bubble Test How Performance Assessments Support 21st Century Learning synthesizes the latest findings in the field and not a moment too soon Statistics indicate that the United States is in danger of falling behind if it fails to adapt to our changing world The memory and recall strategies of traditional testing are no longer adequate to equip our students with the skills they need to excel in the global economy Instead teachers need to engage students in deeper learning assessing their ability to use higher order skills Skills like synthesizing information understanding evidence and critical problem solving are not achieved when we teach to multiple choice exams Examples in Beyond the Bubble Test paint a useful picture of how schools can begin to supplement traditional tests with something that works better This book provides new perspectives on current performance assessment research plus an incisive look at what s possible at the local and state levels Linda Darling Hammond with a team of leading scholars bring together lessons learned new directions and solid recommendations into a single readily accessible compendium Beyond the Bubble Test situates the current debate on performance assessment within the context of testing in the United States This comprehensive resource also looks beyond our U S borders to Singapore Hong Kong and other places whose reform mindedness can serve as an example to us Life by Algorithms Catherine Besteman, Hugh Gusterson,2019-05-23 Essays on the downsides dysfunctions and dangers of automated decision making An excellent survey of the algorithmically managed life Choice The phone systems that businesses use to screen calls The link between student standardized test scores and public schools access to resources The algorithms that regulate patient diagnoses and reimbursements to doctors The impenetrable corporate bureaucracy that can drive customers in need of help

up the wall or drive them to suicide The storage sorting and analysis of massive amounts of information have enabled the automation of decision making at an unprecedented level Meanwhile computers have offered a model of cognition that increasingly shapes our approach to the world The proliferation of roboprocesses is the result as editors Catherine Besteman and Hugh Gusterson observe in this rich and wide ranging volume which features contributions from a distinguished cast of scholars in anthropology communications international studies and political science Though automatic processes are designed to be engines of rational systems the stories in Life by Algorithms reveal how they can in fact produce absurd inflexible or even dangerous outcomes Joining the call for algorithmic transparency the contributors bring exceptional sensitivity to everyday sociality into their critique to better understand how the perils of modern technology affect finance medicine education housing the workplace food production public space and emotions not as separate problems but as linked manifestations of a deeper defect in the fundamental ordering of our society The Machine Stops E M Forster's 1909 science fiction story tells the tale of a human society collapsing when the technology upon which it has become dependent fails Think of this volume as The Machine Starts a collection of unsettling ethnographic accounts of the rise of algorithmic governance A necessary and sobering call to arms Stefan Helmreich Massachusetts Institute of Technology Contributors include Catherine Besteman Alex Blanchette Robert W Gehl Hugh Gusterson Catherine Lutz Ann Lutz Fernandez Joseph Masco Sally Engle Merry Keesha M Middlemass Noelle Stout Susan J Terrio Resources in Education, 1998

Desire, Faith, and the Darkness of God Eric Bugyis, David Newheiser, 2015-11-15 In the face of religious and cultural diversity some doubt whether Christian faith remains possible today Critics claim that religion is irrational and violent and the loudest defenders of Christianity are equally strident In response Desire Faith and the Darkness of God Essays in Honor of Denys Turner explores the uncertainty essential to Christian commitment it suggests that faith is moved by a desire for that which cannot be known This approach is inspired by the tradition of Christian apophatic theology which argues that language cannot capture divine transcendence From this perspective contemporary debates over God's existence represent a dead end if God is not simply another object in the world then faith begins not in abstract certainty but in a love that exceeds the limits of knowledge The essays engage classic Christian thought alongside literary and philosophical sources ranging from Pseudo Dionysius and Dante to Karl Marx and Jacques Derrida Building on the work of Denys Turner they indicate that the boundary between atheism and Christian thought is productively blurry Instead of settling the stale dispute over whether religion is rationally justified their work suggests instead that Christian life is an ethical and political practice impassioned by a God who transcends understanding

Joe Quinn Among the Rowdies Rochelle Llewelyn Nicholls, 2014-10-27 A gentleman when the game was hard bitten played by rough and ready lads out to win whatever the cost Australia had few sporting heroes in the years preceding its federation in 1901 But before its 20th century Olympic trailblazers and Depression era icons such as Phar Lap and Don Bradman came an Australian sporting pioneer who was celebrated on the most glamorous stage in the world American major league baseball Joe Quinn s story has long been lost in the land of his birth This tale gallops from the deprivation of famine ravaged Ireland through colonial Australia to the raucous ballfields of 19th century America with their unruly players and owners brawls and adulation and backroom betrayals Through 17 seasons in the major leagues Undertaker Joe Quinn earned his place among the colorful characters who pioneered the modern game of baseball as much for his ability to stand apart from their bad behavior as for his steadfastness on the field Meet Australia s first professional baseball player and manager whose willingness to have a go in the grand Australian tradition will live long in the minds of sports fans on both sides of the Pacific The Dynamics of Gender in Early Modern France Professor Domna C Stanton, 2014-10-28 In its six case studies The Dynamics of Gender in Early Modern France works out a model for early modern gender which is articulated in the introduction The book comprises essays on the construction of women three in texts by male and three by female writers including Racine F nelon Poulain de la Barre in the first part La Gnette La Fayette and S vign in the second These studies thus also take up different genres satire tragedy and treatise memoir novella and letter writing Since gender is a relational construct each chapter considers as well specific textual and contextual representations of men In every instance Stanton looks for signs of conformity to and deviations from normative gender scripts The Dynamics of Gender adds a new dimension to early modern French literary and cultural studies it incorporates a dynamic shifting theory of gender and it engages both contemporary critical theory and literary historical readings of primary texts and established concepts in the field This book emphasizes the central importance of historical context and close reading from a feminist perspective which it also interrogates as a practice The Afterword examines some of the meanings of reading as a feminist

The College Handbook College Entrance Examination Board,1999 Presents information on 4 year colleges and universities and 2 year community colleges and technical schools Numbers and the World David Mumford,2023-09-27 This book is a collection of essays written by a distinguished mathematician with a very long and successful career as a researcher and educator working in many areas of pure and applied mathematics The author writes about everything he found exciting about math its history and its connections with art and about how to explain it when so many smart people and children are turned off by it The three longest essays touch upon the foundations of mathematics upon quantum mechanics and Schr dinger s cat phenomena and upon whether robots will ever have consciousness Each of these essays includes some unpublished material The author also touches upon his involvement with and feelings about issues in the larger world The author s main goal when preparing the book was to convey how much he loves math and its sister fields

Working environment and work retention Johann Fridrik Fridriksson,Kristinn Tómasson,Tove Midtsundstad,Ingrid Sivesind Mehlum,Anne Inga Hilsen,Kerstin Nilsson,,Maria Albin,2017-12-18 The project shows that the working environment is rarely the sole cause of early retirement but working environment factors may explain a large fraction of the transition to disability pension in particular Several working environment predictors of early retirement are well documented in the Nordic countries but workplace policies and activities to retain older workers rarely aim to improve the working environment There may be great potentials in developing workplace interventions which combine prevention of working environment risk factors e g risk factors for accidents strenuous work high physical work demands insufficient recovery between work shifts quantitative work demands conflicts at work and bullying harassment and age discrimination with increment of job satisfaction through increased control influence possibilities for development and recognition from management

Law and the Management of Disasters Alexia Herwig,Marta Simoncini,2016-12-01 Disasters raise serious challenges for contemporary legal orders they demand significant management but usually amidst massive disruption to the normal functioning of state authority and society When dealing with disasters law has traditionally focused on contingency planning and recovery More recently however resilience has emerged as a key concept in effective disaster management policies and strategies aiming at minimising the impact of events so that the normal functioning of society and the state can be preserved This book analyses the contribution of law to resilience building by looking at law's role in the different phases of the disaster regulatory process risk assessment risk management emergency intervention and recovery More specifically it addresses how law can effectively contribute to resilience oriented disaster management policies and what legal instruments can support effective resilience building
