The Nuptial Deal Jaye Cee Whitehead, 2011-11-01 Since the 1990s gay and lesbian civil rights organizations have increasingly focused on the right of same sex couples to marry which represents a major change from earlier activists rejection of the institution Centering on the everyday struggles feelings and thought of marriage equality activists The Nuptial Deal explores this shift and its connections to the transformation of the United States from a welfare state to a neo liberal one in which families carry the burden of facing social problems Governance and marriage are now firmly entwined Fighting for access to marriage means fighting for specific legal benefits which include everything from medical decision making and spousal immigration to lower insurance rates and taxes As Jaye Cee Whitehead makes plain debates over the definition and purpose of marriage indicate how thoroughly neo liberalism has pervaded American culture Indeed Whitehead concludes the federal government's resistance to same sex marriage stems not from traditional values but from fear of exposing marriage as a form of governance rather than a natural expression of human intimacy A fresh take on the terms and stakes of the debate over same sex marriage The Nuptial Deal is also a probing look at the difficult choices and compromises faced by activists

Let's Go Travel
 Steve Shelley, 2000-06 A collection of travel stories to make you want to get up and go. Survive and Thrive against the Odds
 Shellie Jones, 2014 Survive and Thrive against the Odds is a compelling memoir of a determined sister who miraculously survived birth, death, and other traumas of life by keeping her faith. In this book, Jones shares a plethora of stories of her humble beginnings from a child's viewpoint to midlife. Shellie Jones made many mistakes in her life, and because of them, she suffered the consequences. Sometimes her faith was strong, and other times it wavered. Although she has experienced many trials and felt so much pain, her life has entailed positive outcomes as a result of God's love and His amazing grace. Her positive attitude, faith, gratitude, knowing who she is and who she belongs to as a joint heir of Jesus Christ, and her determination became the essential keys for living. The heavenly Father orchestrated circumstances in her life according to His divine order, and her scars became her stars. In the latter part of this book, readers will find how her perspectives changed as she has continued to live her life. E-mail: surviveandthriveagainsttheodds@gmail.com

Curriculum Histories in Place, in Person, in Practice Petra Hendry, Molly Quinn, Roland Mitchell, Jacqueline Bach, 2023-03-10 This book situates the Curriculum Theory Project at Louisiana State University within a larger historical framework of curriculum work, examining the practices which have sustained this type of curricular vitality over the lifetime of the field's existence. Divided into seven parts, the authors illuminate seven practices which have sustained the scholarship, graduate programs, mentorship, and networking that have been critical to maintaining a web of international relationships This exploration and coming together of intergenerational stories reveals a more complete and nuanced narrative of the development of curriculum theory over the last 60 years Crucially the project exemplifies the continuing resilience of curriculum theory despite ongoing neo liberal aspirations to reframe education as a business Reflecting upon the lived experiences and articulated memories of those who have participated in the project and analysis of documents collected over its 25 year history it considers curriculum history ies writ large through and from this lens of practice As such it opens up fresh insights for cultivating the vitality and vigor of curriculum theory more broadly on an international scale and with a view to future directions for the field It will appeal to both new and experienced scholars working across education foundations urban education philosophy of education and higher education and researchers from across history sociology anthropology ethnic studies and gender studies
