Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies, Issue 7.1 Daniel S. Diffey, Ryan A. Brandt, Justin McLendon, 2023-09-21 The Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies JBTS is an academic journal focused on the fields of Bible and Theology from an inter denominational point of view The journal is comprised of an editorial board of scholars that represent several academic institutions throughout the world JBTS is concerned with presenting high level original scholarship in an approachable way Academic journals are often written by scholars for other scholars They are technical in nature assuming a robust knowledge of the field There are fewer journals that seek to introduce biblical and theological scholarship that is also accessible to students JBTS seeks to provide high level scholarship and research to both scholars and students which results in original scholarship that is readable and accessible As an inter denominational journal JBTS is broadly evangelical We accept contributions in all theological disciplines from any evangelical perspective In particular we encourage articles and book reviews within the fields of Old Testament New Testament Biblical Theology Church History Systematic Theology Practical Theology Philosophical Theology Philosophy and Ethics The Idea of Retribution in the Book of Ezekiel Ka Leung Wong, 2001 After a brief review of recent literature on retribution in the Old Testament the book seeks to demonstrate that underlying Ezekiel are three principles of retribution covenant the disposal of impurity and poetic justice Jeremiah Leslie C. Allen, 2008-01-01 This commentary on the book of Jeremiah understands the book as a work of religious literature to be examined in its final form and yet with careful attention to the historical contexts of writing and development through which the present text took shape Created Male and Female Terrance Randall Wardlaw, 2021-01-19 In a culture where gender neutrality is the ideal why is it significant that we were created differently as male and female As the ethical consequences of the gender debate in the last generation manifest themselves this book explores biblical teaching in order to work toward a Christian perspective This discussion traces the theme of creation as male and female through the canon from the Pentateuch to the epistles and demonstrates how Pauline interpretation flows from Genesis 1:3 The grounding of the distinction between male and female in Genesis 1 as the climax of creation suggests the ethics associated with creation as male and female abide universally and for all time This book intends to present a comprehensive yet reasonably concise presentation of biblical teaching on creation as male and female without bogging down in the detailed disputes between complementarian and egalitarian writers This discussion considers each passage within its literary context and patristic writers from the first few centuries of the church function as a control on interpretation Like Mount Zion Wen-Pin Leow, 2024-03-11 Critical spatial approaches particularly those informed by the scholarship of Lefebvre Foucault and Soja have significantly impacted biblical scholarship over the last twenty years However these spatial approaches have been limited due to the methodological challenges inherent in transposing the social scientific approaches of the aforementioned scholars to the task of biblical interpretation This volume adapts conceptual metaphor theory as a methodological bridge to address such constraints The first half of the volume begins by surveying the field of critical spatiality in biblical studies arguing for the need for fresh methodological development Thereafter the volume delineates a particular critical spatial approach inspired by Lefebvre and Foucault for which conceptual metaphor theory is proposed as a methodological bridge The second half of the volume begins by proposing the Psalms of Ascents as a case study upon which the method could be applied It is then argued that the proposed method if efficacious should provide insight on corpus Zion theology and its so called pilgrimage character Using the proposed method in conjunction with conventional historical grammatical tools of poetic analysis each psalm is analysed with regard to its metaphor and spatiality The volume concludes that the case study demonstrates the efficacy of the proposed methods by allowing a rich reading of each psalm especially by explicating the spatial narratives and or spatial metaphorical conceptualisations that underlie each text and providing fresh insight on the collection as a whole This volume has been awarded the 2024 Rev Dr Lien Hwa Chow Memorial Foundation s Outstanding Theological Research Book Award This award is to recognize and promote outstanding theological research and publications by Chinese scholars Your God Is a Devouring Fire Michael Simone SJ, 2023-07-19 In the ancient Near East the distinction between the divine realm and the material world was not always clear In Mesopotamia statues kings and even cultic utensils could become gods in their own right Certain biblical traditions show this idea as well Yhwh appears as a human during visitations to Abraham and Jacob Gen 18 1 2 and 32 25 31 Yhwh also can act through objects Gen 15 17 1 Sam 5 1 5 This suggests that in Israel as in Mesopotamia a distinction between humans and gods was one of status more than ontology Throughout the ancient Near East religious literature included motifs that emphasized divine status such as power size wonder working ability and the possession of numinous qualities In Israel these divine status symbols were frequently storm motifs like cloud precipitation and fire Fire was one of the most common perhaps because being vivid and powerful it shared Yhwh s life giving transformative yet dangerous qualities In certain narratives fiery motifs accompany an embodied divine presence At other times fiery phenomena are the sole perceptible indications of divine presence As a motif of divinity fire can symbolize divine agency even functioning at a distance from Yhwh or shared with a secondary agent like an angel tool or weapon Israel's extensive use of fire in the cult gives witness to similar traditions Divine fire accompanies each new cultic inauguration in the Hebrew Bible A tradition in Leviticus suggests that this fire remained continuously burning and served as a gate that allowed God to receive portions of the cultic offering In the Hebrew Bible fire was thus a status symbol of divinity drawn from traditional storm motifs and ancient conventions of divine embodiment In its vivid ethereal appearance and power to give transform and take life it symbolized the presence and agency of Yhwh the God of Israel Isaiah's Servant in Paul Daniel M. I. Cole, 2021-07-02 Paul seems to read Isaiah's Servant with reference to himself Daniel Cole examines Paul's use of texts within Isa 49:54 to explain why the apostle does this and what the ethical implications are He demonstrates that the coherent salvation history of the Servant prophecy guides Paul throughout James Barr Assessed, 2021-08-16 James Barr is a widely recognized name in biblical studies even if he is still best known for his The Semantics of Biblical Language Barr's Semantics although first published in 1961 still generates animated discussion of its claims However over his lengthy career Barr published significant scholarship on a wide variety of topics within Old Testament studies and beyond This volume provides an assessment of Barr's contribution to biblical studies sixty years after the publication of his first and still memorable volume on biblical semantics As a result this volume includes essays on major topics such as the Hebrew language lexical semantics lexicography the Septuagint and biblical theology
