North Korea Paul French, 2015-08-15 North Korea continues to make headlines arousing curiosity and fear in equal measure The world's most secretive nuclear power it still has Gulag style prison camps allows no access to the Internet and bans its people from talking to foreigners without official approval In this remarkable and eye opening book internationally best selling author Paul French examines in forensic detail the history and politics of North Korea Pyongyang's complex relations with South Korea Japan China and America and the implications of Kim Jong un's increasingly belligerent leadership following the death of his father Kim Jong il As an already unstable North Korea grows ever more unpredictable antagonizing enemies and allies alike North Korea State of Paranoia delivers a provocative and frightening account of a potentially explosive nuclear tripwire

China and the New Maoists Kerry Brown, Simone van Nieuwenhuizen, 2016-08-15 Forty years after his death Mao remains a totemic if divisive figure in contemporary China Though he retains an immense symbolic importance within China's national mythology the rise of a capitalist economy has seen the ruling class become increasingly ambivalent towards him And while he continues to be a highly visible and contentious presence in Chinese public life Mao's enduring influence has been little understood in the West In China and the New Maoists Kerry Brown and Simone van Nieuwenhuizen look at the increasingly vocal elements who claim to be the true ideological heirs to Mao ranging from academics to cyberactivists as well as at the state's efforts to draw on Mao's image as a source of legitimacy This is a fascinating portrait of a country undergoing dramatic upheavals while still struggling to come to terms with its past Sovereign Women in a Muslim Kingdom Sher Banu A.L. Khan, 2017-05-05

The Islamic kingdom of Aceh was ruled by queens for half of the seventeenth century Was female rule an aberration Unnatural A violation of nature comparable to hens instead of roosters crowing at dawn Indigenous texts and European sources offer different evaluations Drawing on both sets of sources this book shows that female rule was legitimised both by Islam and adat indigenous customary laws and provides original insights on the Sultanah's leadership their relations with male elites and their encounters with European envoys who visited their court The book challenges received views on kingship in the Malay world and the response of indigenous polities to east west encounters in Southeast Asia's Age of Commerce Owners of the Map Claudio Sopranzetti, 2018 On May 19 2010 the Royal Thai Army deployed tanks snipers and war weapons to disperse the thousands of Red Shirts protesters who had taken over the commercial center of Bangkok to demand democratic elections and an end to inequality Key to this mobilization were motorcycle taxi drivers who slowed down filtered and severed mobility in the area claiming a prominent role in national politics and ownership over the city and challenging state hegemony Four years later on May 20 2014 the same army general who directed the dispersal staged a military coup unopposed by protesters How could state power have been so fragile and open to challenge in 2010 and yet so seemingly sturdy only four years later How could protesters who had once fearlessly resisted military attacks now remain silent Owners of the Map provides answers to these questions central to contemporary political mobilizations around the globe through an ethnographic study of motorcycle taxi drivers in Bangkok Claudio Sopranzetti explores the unresolved tensions in the drivers everyday lives their migration trajectories consumer desires and political demands amidst the restructuring of Thai capitalism after the 1997 economic crisis Reconstructing the entanglements between their everyday mobility and political mobilization Sopranzetti reveals mobility not just as a strength of contemporary capitalism but also as one of its fragile spots always prone to disruption by the people who sustain its channels but remain excluded from their benefits In so doing Owners of the Map advances an analysis of power that focuses not on the sturdiness of hegemony or the ubiquity of everyday resistance but on its potential fragility as well as the work needed for its maintenance Leftover

Women Leta Hong Fincher, 2016-07-31 Scattered with inspiring life stories of courageous women The Guardian In the early years of the People's Republic the Communist Party sought to transform gender relations Yet those gains have been steadily eroded in China's post socialist era Contrary to the image presented by China's media women in China have experienced a dramatic rollback of rights and gains relative to men In Leftover Women Leta Hong Fincher exposes shocking levels of structural discrimination against women and the broader damage this has caused to China's economy, politics and development. Parameters, 1998. Global Change and East Asian Policy Initiatives Shahid Yusuf, M. Anjum Altaf, Kaoru Nabeshima, 2004. Annotation: Although many economies have grown briskly in the last few years, future development will depend on the quality and timeliness of policy actions. This volume provides specific policy responses that could be employed to navigate successfully through periods of economic, political and technological turbulence by enhancing both competitiveness of firms and the stability of the economies in East Asia. The European Union's Role in South Asia Simant Shankar Bharti, 2025-05-23. This book delineates the role and evolution of the European Union (EU) as an instrument of soft power in relation to South Asian countries. It explains the EU's development policy towards South Asia and examines its cooperation while attempting to assess the extent to which EU's development policy can be an instrument of soft power. In addition to examining the development challenges in South Asian countries and the impact of the EU's development assistance on them, this book describes the various theoretical approaches on the concept of development along with the interplay of aid politics in international relations (IR). Primarily, it assesses how the EU's development policy emerged as a significant instrument of power towards developing countries. This book will be useful to students, scholars and researchers of development studies, political science, sociology, economics, foreign policy, diplomacy, area and regional studies, South Asian studies, EU politics and European integration, international relations and public administration. It will also be an indispensable companion for EU policymakers, NGOs and civil societies, South Asian states' policymakers and general readers interested in learning more about development, diplomacy and soft power.
