Keefe, 2021-03-28 Passengers cancelling their tickets for Titanic's maiden voyage out of apprehension a famous social reformer who died on Titanic warned in 1911 that he would be in danger from water in April 1912 inhabitants of the remote islands of Fiji aware of the sinking before reports of the collision reached the Pacific a dying girl who on 14 April 1912 sees a big ship sinking in the water and mysteriously knows the name of the violinist in Titanic's orchestra These are just a few of the numerous claims to psychic foreknowledge of the ship's sinking Within days of the widely publicised disaster of 1912 stories began circulating of extraordinary omens and individuals who supposedly had supernatural premonitions of the disaster Furthermore four fictional works one dating as far back as twenty six years came to be seen as anticipating the disaster Between 1960 and 2006 five major commentators published extended analyses of the alleged premonitions none of which is now easily accessible to an English readership This book examines them all in detail The whole treatment of the matter opens up fascinating questions concerning the paranormal but also raises and leaves unresolved crucial issues specific to premonitions and how they can be legitimately examined Readers are left to make their own judgement on Titanic premonitions

A Citizen's Blueprint Emgee, 2014-07-28 In today's conformist censorious politically correct world we are not allowed to speak our minds for fear of being called a racist a sexist or a bigot and yet when somebody does buck the trend and says what we all or at least the majority of us are really thinking we often applaud it Why is that Surely if the majority of people think in a certain way then that should be the way that our democracy is run We should not have a silent majority wishing that the country was run in one way while an arrogant minority is taking it in a completely different direction Examples abound in UK politics of politicians not listening to the people who elected them the EU the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan etc Indeed in recent years in politics as in TV substance has given way to spin Well I intend to change that The PDC could not promise a horn of plenty for all but what it would promise is an honest hard working team of dedicated professionals working together to get the best deal for this country and its inhabitants not for themselves not for their cronies or for the self serving elite but for the hard working citizens of this country without whom there would be no Britain to make Great again NB I do not subscribe to social networks but if you would like to show your support for this project or make a pledge towards its funding you may do so at www.thepdc.org.uk Titanic Legacy Dan E. Parkes,2025-02-15
