Management educational and training programs are giving increasing attention to these developments. At the same time there is emerging interest in research about and study of multicultural teams. This book emerged from our teaching research and consulting with multicultural and diverse teams in multiple sectors over the last several years. In particular we have developed and refined our ideas about the concepts in this book from teaching an advanced course called Effective Multicultural Teams in the Graduate Program at the School for International Training SIT in Vermont. We have learned from the rich background of students who are from and have worked in six continents and who are or plan to be working in the public educational not for profit and for profit sectors. Additionally we have engaged with a variety of teams through our consulting and training providing consultation to teams in a variety of sectors and continents as they struggled to become more effective.
