

Prayer for Peacemakers

Spirit of Peace, we ask for your guidance and wisdom
as we strive for peace.
Inspire and enliven our efforts to make peace a reality
in our war-torn world.

Grant us peace of mind and heart.
Help us to make peace with the unsettled parts of our lives and show us what it means to practice love of self.

Encircle our homes with peace.
Remind us daily of the value of words and actions that foster kindness and consideration.

Enrich our neighborhoods, parishes, and communities
with peace.
Teach us how to listen to each other with respect,
and to widen our circles of compassion and caring.

Make peace a reality across the globe.
Broaden our understanding and acceptance of those who belong to other nations, religions, and races.

Spirit of Peace, we thank you for your guidance and wisdom as we strive for peace.
May our efforts to be peacemakers ripple out into the world and draw us together as a global family.

Amen.

Blessed Are the Peacemakers Daniel L. Buttry, In the pages of this book you will meet more than 100 heroes but most of them are not the kind of heroes our culture celebrates for muscle beauty and wealth These are peacemakers They circle the planet A few are famous like Gandhi and Bono of U2 But most of them you will discover for the first time in these stories Watch out Reading about their lives may inspire you to step up into their courageous circle Blessed Are the

Peacemakers Lisa Sowle Cahill,2019-03-02 This book is a contribution to the Christian ethics of war and peace It advances peacebuilding as a needed challenge to and expansion of the traditional framework of just war theory and pacifism It builds on a critical reading of historical landmarks from the Bible through Augustine Aquinas the Reformers Christian peace movements and key modern figures like Dietrich Bonhoeffer Reinhold Niebuhr and recent popes Similar to just war theory peacebuilding is committed to social change and social justice but includes some theorists and practitioners who accept the use of force in extreme cases of self defense or humanitarian intervention Unlike just war theorists they do not see the justification of war as part of the Christian mission Unlike traditional pacifists they do see social change as necessary and possible and as such requiring Christian participation in public efforts Cahill argues that transformative Christian social participation is demanded by the gospel and the example of Jesus and can produce the avoidance resolution or reduction of conflicts And yet obstacles are significant and expectations must be realistic Decisions to use armed force against injustice even when they meet the criteria of just war will be ambiguous and tragic from a Christian perspective Regarding war and peace the focus of Christian theology ethics and practice should not be on justifying war but on practical and hopeful interreligious peacebuilding Becoming a Peacemaker Gail Daniels Hassett,2000-09-16 The older teens in your parish residents Catholics and Catholic leaders among them too often fall short of adequately challenging the use of violence in U S policy The opportunities and developments in approaches to peacemaking have been growing at a significant rate However violent methods continue to hold significant sway in U S policy and society as the commonly assumed way to peace Even when community organizers policymakers members of Catholic leadership and academics sincerely search for alternatives to violence they too often think about nonviolence as primarily a rule or a strategy Catholic Social Teaching has been moving toward transcending the limits of these approaches but it still has significant room for growth In order to contribute to this growth and to impact U S policy McCarthy draws on Jesus Gandhi Ghaffar Khan and King to offer a virtue based approach to nonviolent peacemaking with a corresponding set of core practices This approach is also set in conversation with aspects of human rights discourse to increase its possible impact on U S policy As a whole Becoming Nonviolent Peacemakers offers an important challenge to contemporary accounts of peacemaking in the U S Restorative Justice: Theoretical foundations
