A Puma in the Tree J. K. Mactavish, 2014-10-17 Paul Eh em is a cautious thirty year old plagued by reticence and life world trivia Noticing a mountain lion cub watching him from a tree he takes inspiration and records his experiences of starting over in a rural California town His writing and those he befriends figure in his transition and integration of his separated selves But his story reaches beyond connecting meaningfully with people and finding the best fit match for him He must become resolute in working through his own sexual orientation and grief lite He must also navigate through a maze of frustrated plans decisions about career and calling inaccurate first impressions feelings of emptiness errors in judgment troubling memories mistakes and inadequacies philosophical quibbles and admirable yet formidable people and situations that challenge him His story is a meta fiction of identity formation animated by feminine energies totemic mascots and diverse and developing characters All this and much much more is his journey to a conclusion Or is it a precarious beginning
