The American New Woman Revisited Martha H. Patterson, 2008 In North America between 1894 and 1930 the rise of the New Woman sparked controversy on both sides of the Atlantic and around the world As she demanded a public voice as well as private fulfillment through work education and politics American journalists debated and defined her Who was she and where did she come from Was she to be celebrated as the agent of progress or reviled as a traitor to the traditional family Over time the dominant version of the American New Woman became typified as white educated and middle class the suffragist progressive reformer and bloomer wearing bicyclist By the 1920s the jazz dancing flapper epitomized her Yet she also had many other faces Bringing together a diverse range of essays from the periodical press of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Martha H Patterson shows how the New Woman differed according to region class politics race ethnicity and historical circumstance In addition to the New Woman's prevailing incarnations she appears here as a gun wielding heroine imperialist symbol assimilationist icon entrepreneur socialist anarchist thief vamp and eugenicist Together these readings redefine our understanding of the New Woman and her cultural impact

The New Woman and Technologies of Speed in Fin-de- Siècle Literature Eva Chen, 2024-11-01 This is the first literary study on the New Woman's interaction with modern speed culture through use of the typewriter and the bicycle These technologies of speed are among the earliest to be associated with middle class women exposing them to the discipline of mechanized speed while allowing for the construction of a new machine savvy sped up and energized female subjectivity Used for women's office work and daily movement they demand from their women operators a response and adaptation to speed right from the beginning The ability to catch up with imitate adjust to and finally master this mechanized speed is the key to the New Woman's enlarged freedom in the modern city By examining New Woman literature penned by George Gissing H G Wells Grant Allen Geraldine Edith Mitton and Mrs Edward Kennard and stories and comments published in popular magazines this book examines how mechanized speed works on the New Woman typist and cyclist first as discipline and control in typewriting then as commodity and conspicuous display in cycling and finally as rejuvenation stimulation and active thrill Being fast having speed and adjusting to the shocks as well as excitement of techno aided speed is a crucial part of what

Female Identity in the Late 19th and Early 20th Century in Virginia Woolf's "Mrs. Dalloway" and Angela Carter's "Nights at the Circus" Marie Will, 2023-06-30 Essay from the year 2019 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.0 Nottingham Trent University Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik course Culture and Anarchy language English abstract

In this essay I aim to compare Woolf's and Carter's take on the female identity as shown in their work I will focus on the novels Mrs Dalloway and Nights at the Circus respectively and their female characters The fight for female equality experienced a high during the turn of the 19th to 20th century It was defined by the suffragette movement that gained the voting right for women in 1928 However it all started in the 1890s when the term New Women was introduced by the American novelists Sarah Grand and Ouida In a pair of articles published in the North American Review the writers laid focus on the independent and educated woman that was not merely an object of desire for men and a means for reproduction By the public the term was soon related to social reforms in literature however the New Woman was heavily criticised She was often portrayed as selfish and over educated hence a danger to the male ego Virginia Woolf born in 1882 in Victorian London and one of the few partially recognised female writers of her time experienced the social changes and the adoption of a new view of the woman first hand As a young woman she first came in contact with the women's rights movement in Britain which later influenced her work to a great extent More recently in light of the first and second wave feminism her work has been interpreted as showing early forms of feminist thinking Angela Carter born more than half a century later in 1940 is known for her openly feminist writing that presents familiar stories and themes with a twist on gender and class issues<sup>6</sup> Her novels and short stories are often set in the past and explore the issues of identity for women from the light of the first and second wave feminism during the 1970s and 1980s
