"A Pioneer Woman Looks Back" is a poem from Bobbi Katz's collection We the People. In this poem Katz writes in the voice of Mary Stahler, a pioneer who moves to the frontier with her husband to take possession of a land grant.

A Pioneer Woman Looks Back

MARY STAHLER—KANSAS, 1874

by Bobbi Katz

"Free for the taking. At that price, YOU can buy . . . a garden in the West . . .
endless land and endless sky!"

5	We were just newlyweds. John said, "It seems best to grow with the country— raise our family out West." We were young. We were strong. How were we to know land and sky could be cruel?
10	We got ready to go. I smiled through my tears, as our loved ones waved good-bye. We crossed the Mississippi for
15	endless land . . . endless sky . . .
20	The trail was rough and the going was tough. The prairies of Kansas were far West enough. John staked out our claim one hot day in July, as I waited and I watched— endless land . . . endless sky . . .
25	Young John was born early that fall. Next came Mary, then Elizabeth . . . nine kids in all.
