Nischik, 2000 Novelist poet cultural critic Margaret Atwood is one of the most fascinating versatile and productive authors of our time a superb writer in any genre she chooses to tackle This book was prepared on the occasion of Atwood s sixtieth birthday in November 1999 Its first aim is therefore to take stock of Atwood s multifarious works and international impact at the height of her creative powers Secondly the book serves as a wide ranging introduction to the writer and her works Fifteen informative articles written specifically for this volume by Atwood specialists from Canada the USA the UK Germany and France treat her life and status her works up to date survey articles on Atwood s novels short fiction poetry and literary and cultural criticism and important approaches to her works from the standpoints of gender politics mythology ecology popular culture constructivism and Canadian nationalism A final section on creativity transmission and reception includes an interview with Atwood on creativity statements by some of Atwood s important transmitters including publishers editors literary agents and translators and some 15 statements by Atwood s fellow writers in which they explore her importance for them A number of photographs of Atwood several cartoons drawn by her an up to date bibliography of works by and about Atwood and an index round out the volume Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American literature at the University of Konstanz Germany Margaret Atwood and Social Justice Theodore F. Sheckels, 2022-11-25 Margaret Atwood and Social Justice eventually presents a loose ideology evident in the author s major works of prose fiction It insists however that Atwood is a writer not an ideologue and that therefore this ideology evolves over her career always secondary to her presenting stories and characters and through them ideas Throughout her career Atwood has been concerned about the social injustice experienced by women After expressing concern for the plight of the environment in Surfacing and workers in Life Before Man Atwood turned quite political in Bodily Harm and The Handmaid s Tale blending her concern for justice for women with criticism of present day Third World and future right wing governments Atwood then turned inward looking at how those denied justice often do the same to others and turned to history looking at injustice tied to social class She later brought many of her concerns together in The Blind Assassin and especially the three books that comprise the MaddAddam trilogy Later works such as The Heart Goes Last Hag

Seed and The Testaments add to the picture most fully articulated in The Blind Assassin which looks back at the 1930s and the MaddAddam books which look ahead to a future marked by global warming corporate oppression and pandemic As argued here these later books strengthen her indictment of corporations which oppress for the sake of profit and offer her most straightforward recognition that race plays a major role in whether social justice is served or not Solved Papers YCT Expert Team , 2023 24 NTA UGC NET JRF English Solved Papers

Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Language, Art and Cultural Exchange (ICLACE 2023) Bootheina Majoul,Guiyun Guan,Nick Groom,2023-08-28 This is an open access book The 4th International Conference on Language Art and Cultural Exchange ICLACE 2023 will be held on May 19 21 2023 in Hangzhou China Culture includes language which is a special cultural phenomenon For culture most scholars agree that it mainly includes two aspects material culture and spiritual culture Specific examples to show cultural phenomena will be of great benefit to our understanding Some examples of material culture are listed here Indian women wear saris Japanese like to eat sashimi and Chinese like to shake hands when meeting each other These are various manifestations of material culture in different nations Language is the mode of transmission of culture Language is one of the most important ways of thinking and cultural exchange of human beings which is actually the manifestation of the formation and transmission of culture Because of thinking human beings gradually create culture in the continuous social practice and then spread their national culture to each other in the continuous language exchange Since ancient times art and culture have been going hand in hand and complementing each other On the one hand art is an important connotation and component of culture and the progress of art is the driving force of cultural development On the other hand culture is the source and content of art and the prosperity of culture is the key to improve the level of art On the other hand culture is the source and content of art and the prosperity of culture is the key to improving the level of art Therefore whether it is culture or art it is not only a symbol of an era a representation of people s life style but also a guide to the direction of social development The relationship between language art and cultural communication is a hot topic for many scholars to study at present Therefore an academic conference is set up for authors to discuss related research issues and exchange new ideas hoping that scholars can burst out more excellent and valuable ideas in this conference ICLACE 2023 is to bring together innovative academics and industrial experts in the field of Literature Art and Cultural Exchange research to a common forum The primary goal of the conference is to provide a platform for scientists scholars and engineers from all over the world to present ongoing research activities fostering the research and business relations and promoting scientific information interchange and cooperation between all the participants

Margaret Atwood's Aesthetics Dunja M. Mohr,Kirsten Sandrock,2025-03-31 Perhaps more timely than ever Margaret Atwood s Aesthetics offers novel perspectives on both contemporary and canonical topics in Margaret Atwood s work with a special focus on the intersections of literature and politics Arguably one of the most political writers of our times Atwood s oeuvre subtly and overtly entangles readers in the dialectics of personal and political power asymmetries intrinsic to her aesthetic practices The collection takes its cue from the concept of the artpolitical as coined by Crispin Sartwell whose afterword addresses Atwood's aesthetic and imaginative material world construction and explores the interrelationship between literatures and aesthetic as well as political systems in Atwood's works Individual chapters of Margaret Atwood's Aesthetics contribute to increasingly burning questions concerning the relevance of literature today by drawing on a variety of critical perspectives including Anthropocene studies gender intersectionality the nonhuman and the posthuman Mikhail Bakhtin's carnivalesque risk studies nationhood intermediality and teaching Chapters offer fresh views on some of Atwood's most prominent works such as The Handmaid's Tale and The Testaments and their transmedial adaptations while other chapters focus on Atwood's latest publications as well as on under researched works including her graphic novels and her web serialized publications Margaret Atwood's Aesthetics provides unique insights into the aesthetic and political power of Atwood's oeuvre arguing that literary and media representations and cultural adaptation practices contain a significant transformative potential that reaches beyond the page

Margaret Atwood: Crime Fiction Writer Jackie Shead, 2016-05-13 Exploring how Margaret Atwood's fiction reimagines the figure of the detective and the nature of crime Jackie Shead shows how the author radically reworks the crime fiction genre Shead focuses on Surfacing Bodily Harm Alias Grace The Blind Assassin Oryx and Crake and selected short fiction showing the ways in which Atwood's protagonists are confronted by their own collusion in hegemonic assumptions and thus are motivated to investigate and expose crimes of gender class and colonialism Shead begins with a discussion of how Atwood's treatment of crime fiction's generic elements particularly those of the whodunit clue puzzle and spy thriller departs from convention Through discussion of Atwood's metafictional strategies Shead also examines Atwood's techniques for activating her readers as investigators who are offered an educative process parallel to that experienced by some of the author's protagonists This book also marks a significant intervention in an ongoing debate among Atwood critics that pits the author's postmodernism against her ethical and humanistic concerns Neo-Victorianism and the Memory of Empire Elizabeth Ho, 2012-04-19

Examining the global dimensions of Neo Victorianism this book explores how the appropriation of Victorian images in contemporary literature and culture has emerged as a critical response to the crises of decolonization and Imperial collapse Neo Victorianism and the Memory of Empire explores the phenomenon by reading a range of popular and literary Anglophone neo Victorian texts including Alan Moore's Graphic Novel From Hell works by Peter Carey and Margaret Atwood the films of Jackie Chan and contemporary Steampunk science fiction Through these readings Elizabeth Ho explores how constructions of popular memory and fictionalisations of the past reflect political and psychological engagements with our contemporary post Imperial circumstances The Rhetoric of Canadian Writing, 2021-11-22 The sixteen articles in The Rhetoric of Canadian Writing are a welcome contribution to the growing interest in Canadian culture indicating its variety Aboriginal Anglo Canadian and French Canadian culture and their interrelationships are all represented In classical oratory the term rhetoric signifies the art of influencing the thought and conduct of readers and listeners and this concept is used as an underlying current of debate in this volume Contributors address the theme of identity and post colonial disputation in their explorations of eighteenth and nineteenth century writing by Elizabeth Simcoe Catharine Parr Traill and Lucy Montgomery as well as contemporary works by Margaret Atwood Nancy Huston Wayne Johnston Susan Swan Jacques Poulin and Rudy Wiebe Quebecois writer Louis Dupr contributes a compelling reflection on women's writing in Quebec The Palgrave Handbook of Neo-Victorianism Brenda Ayres, Sarah E. Maier, 2024-01-20 This handbook offers analysis of diverse genres and media of neo Victorianism including film and television adaptations of Victorian texts authors' life stories graphic novels and contemporary fiction set in the nineteenth century Contextualized by Sarah E Maier and Brenda Ayres in a comprehensive introduction the collection describes current trends in neo Victorian scholarship of novels film theatre crime empire postcolonialism Gothic materiality religion and science amongst others A variety of scholars from around the world contribute to this volume by applying an assortment of theoretical approaches and interdisciplinary focus in their critique of a wide range of narratives from early neo Victorian texts such as A S Byatt's Possession 1963 and Jean Rhys' Wide Sargasso

Sea 1966 to recent steampunk from musical theatre to slumming and from The Alienist to queerness in their investigation of how this fiction reconstructs the past informed by and reinforcing the present
