Friedländer, 1973 A Bestiary for Saint Jerome Herbert Friedmann, 1980 World Collectors Annuary, 1996 Northern European and Spanish Paintings Before 1600 in the Art Institute of Chicago Art Institute of Chicago, Martha Wolff, 2008 This volume documents the Art Institute of Chicago's significant yet relatively unknown collection of French Spanish Netherlandish English and German paintings created before 1600 More than one hundred works including altarpieces private devotional works portraits and landscapes by such masters as Lucas Cranach Gerard David El Greco Jan Gossart and Rogier van der Weyden receive their first in depth analysis More than 350 images including comparative illustrations of underdrawings reconstructed ensembles and related works accompany the entries BOOK JACKET Joachim Patinir Reindert Leonard Falkenburg, 1988 The study of Patinir's landscapes sets out to demonstrate that they are grounded in the moral and religious thought of his time and closely related to late Medieval devotional art The first part demonstrates that the figural elements in Patinir's landscapes are based on a type of devotional image Andachtsbild with secondary scene's that goes back to the paintings of Van der Weyden and Memling The second part of the book contains an iconographic analysis of the landscape itself particularly in The Penitence of St Jerome in the Louvre Paris and in three paintings in the Prado Madrid Landscape with St Jerome Charon and Man's Soul and Rest on the Flight into Egypt The book argues that these images are determined by the allegories of the pilgrimage of life and of life's two paths ARTnews, 1958 Art Matters Erma Hermens, 2002 Tempest and Shipwreck in Dutch and Flemish Art Lawrence Otto Goedde, 1989 This innovative study is the first to analyze systematically an important category of Netherlandish seascape the storm at sea It addresses the fundamental issues of meaning and purpose that such pictures pose for students of Dutch landscape and indeed of all Dutch realism Bringing together a vast body of imagery and texts never before assembled Goedde places this imagery within historical and cultural contexts that permit us to enter into the ideas values and metaphorical associations that such pictures held for seventeenth century viewers He amplifies this iconographic study with a meticulous and subtle analysis of narrative incident and expressive form that while respecting the naturalism of the art reveals its surprisingly conventional and rhetorical character In particular Goedde links the meaning of Dutch tempest paintings with a rhetorical tradition in Dutch literature Through his analysis he is able to offer fresh insights not only into these seascapes but into the interpretation of all pre Romantic landscapes as well This book is addressed at once to specialists in Dutch art and to a broad group of art historians and scholars concerned with cultural history and the relation of literature to art It offers a survey of the tempest in art and literature from antiquity to the modern era in order to define the conventional elements of Dutch painting and writing on this theme An exceptional feature of this study is the author's analysis of the ways conventions encode meaning in both literary and pictorial representations Explicating these conventional structures and themes in terms of the cosmology of correspondences and of elemental love and strife Goedde's discussion both encourages and controls metaphorical interpretation of stormscares This study also offers an essential historical background to anyone concerned with the picturesque sublimity and Romanticism in eighteenth and nineteenth century culture because of the importance of the themes of storm and shipwreck in the later period The ...
