1. Foundations of U.S. Government

a. Principles of Government

- Rule of Law: No one is above the law, and laws apply equally to all citizens.
- Separation of Powers: Division of government responsibilities into three branches to prevent any one branch from becoming too powerful.
- Checks and Balances: Each branch of government has powers that can limit the actions of the other branches.
- Federalism: Power is divided between the national government and state governments.

b. Historical Documents

- Declaration of Independence (1776): Declared independence from Britain and outlined the principle of natural rights (life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness).
- Articles of Confederation: The first constitution of the U.S., which was weak and later replaced by the current Constitution.
- U.S. Constitution (1787): The supreme law of the U.S., outlining the structure and powers of the federal government.

c. The Bill of Rights

- First 10 Amendments to the Constitution: Guarantees individual freedoms and rights, such as freedom of speech, religion, and the press; the right to bear arms; and protection against unreasonable search and seizure.

Rushdoony s study tells us an important part of American history exactly what has public education been trying to accomplish Before the 1830s and Horace Mann no schools in the U S were state supported or state controlled They were local parent teacher enterprises supported without taxes and taking care of all children They were remarkably high in standard and were Christian From Mann to the present the state has used education to socialize the child The school s basic purpose according to its own philosophers is not education in the traditional sense of the 3 R s Instead it is to promote democracy and equality not in their legal or civic sense but in terms of the engineering of a socialized citizenry Public education became the means of creating a social order of the educators design Such men saw themselves and the school in messianic terms This book was instrumental in launching the Christian school and homeschool movements U.S. Naval Training Bulletin ,1948 Descriptions of Education Manuals Prepared Or Selected by the Editorial Staff of the United States Armed Forces Institue United States.
