American Anthropology Association (AAA) style follows the Chicago Manual of Style (CMS) Author-Date style. The Chicago Manual of Style is available as part of the Ready Reference Collection at the circulation desk. For further questions or sources not covered in this quick style guide, please reference the Chicago Manual of Style.

Formatting the References List

- Your references list should be titled References Cited
- All sources cited in the text should be included on the References Cited. Do not include any sources that were not cited in the text.
- Arrange your sources alphabetically. When citing multiple sources by the same author, the sources should be in chronological order, from oldest to most recent.

In-Text Citations

The general format for in-text citations is the author's last name and the source's publication date enclosed by parentheses, at the end of the sentence before any punctuation.

Examples:

... (Smith 2010).

... (Wells and Morgan 2007).

When quoting from a source, you must include the page number in the in-text citation. The page number is added after the publication date, separated by a comma. If citing a range of pages, you can use a dash to separate the pages.

Examples:

... (Smith 2010, 3).

... (Wells and Morgan 2007, 15-16).

The Broadview Guide to Writing: A Handbook for Students - Sixth Edition Corey Frost, Karen Weingarten, Doug Babington, Don LePan, Maureen Okun, 2017-05-30 Even the most useful reference guides are not always well shall we say riveting A refreshing exception is the new Broadview Guide to Writing which is smart helpful and even fun to read Gerald Graff and Cathy Birkenstein authors of They Say I Say The Moves That Matter in Academic Writing Key Features A coil bound reference text suitable for a range of introductory composition and writing courses Divided into three sections Writing Processes including Research Argumentation and Style Writing Mechanics Grammar Usage and Punctuation Writing Contexts Writing in different academic disciplines Forms and conventions and citation Comprehensive treatment of citation style guides with 2016 MLA style updates Expanded treatment of research methods argument structures and writing in the workplace A unique section on How to Be Good With Words issues of gender race class religion sexual orientation disability etc Expanded coverage for those whose native language is not English All new chapter on reading images Extensive companion website featuring interactive exercises Increasingly writing handbooks are seen as over produced and overpriced One stands out The Broadview Guide to Writing is published in an elegant but simple format and sells for roughly half the price of its fancier looking competitors That does not change with the new edition what does change and stay up to date is the content of the book The sixth edition brings a substantial re organization of the contents under three headings Writing Processes Writing Mechanics and Writing Contexts Coverage of APA Chicago and CSE styles of documentation has been substantially expanded and the MLA section has now been fully revised to take into account all the 2016 changes Also expanded is coverage of academic argument of writing and critical thinking of writing about literature of paragraphing of how to integrate quoted material into one s own work of balance and parallelism and of issues of gender race religion etc in writing The chapter Seeing and Meaning Reading and Writing About Visual Images is entirely new to the sixth edition

Writing and Developing Your College Textbook Mary Ellen Lepionka, 2008 This is the comprehensively revised second edition of a popular professional book on textbook writing and finding one s way in the higher education publishing world for academic authors and editors college instructors and instructional designers The second edition has two new chapters on the latest industry trends such as the pricing revolt open access movement and wiki textbook phenomenon and on the use of learning objectives to structure textbook package development Every chapter features new sections links forms models or examples from an even greater range of college courses Contains updated and expanded appendices glossary entries references bibliography entries and index BISAC Language Arts Disciplines Authorship and Publishing
