The Development of Modern Medicine in Non-Western Countries Hormoz Ebrahimnejad, 2009-01-13 This book for the first time bridges the gap in medical history between modern Western and non Western medicines It opens a new perspective in medical historiography in which modern medicine becomes an integral part of the history of medicine in non European countries

Mythology and Diplomacy in the Age of Exploration Adam Knobler, 2016-11-28 This book examines the relationship between medieval European mythologies of the non Western world and the initial Portuguese and Spanish voyages of expansion and exploration to Africa Asia and the Americas From encounters with the Mongols and successor states to the European contacts with Ethiopia India and the Americas as well as the concomitant Jewish notion of the Ten Lost Tribes the volume views the Western search for distant crusading allies through the lens of stories such as the apostolate of Saint Thomas and the stories surrounding the supposed priest king Prester John In doing so Knobler weaves a broad history of early modern Iberian imperial expansion within the context of a history of cosmologies and mythologies

Tarih incelemeleri dergisi, 2005 Beyond the Exotic Amira El-Azhary Sonbol, 2021-02-15 Most research has accepted stereotypical images of Muslim women treating their outward manifestations such as veiling as passive and oppressive Muslim women have been depicted as different and by exoticizing orientaling them or Islamic society in general they have been dealt with outside of general women s history and regarded as having little to contribute to the writing of world history or to the life of their sisters worldwide By approaching widely used sources with different questions and methodologies and by using new or little used material with much primary research this book redresses these deficiencies Scholars revisit and reevaluate scripture and scriptural interpretation church records involving non Muslim women of the Arab world archival court records dating from the present back to the Ottoman period and the oral and material culture and its written record including oral history textbooks sufi practices and the politics of dress By deconstructing the past these scholars offer fresh perspectives on women s roles and aspirations in Middle East societies

Pashas James Mather, 2009 Long before they came as occupiers the British were drawn to the Middle East by the fabled riches of its trade and the enlightened tolerance of its people The Pashas merchants and travelers from Europe discovered an Islamic world that was alluring dynamic and diverse Ranging across two and a half centuries and through the great cities of Istanbul Aleppo and Alexandria James Mather tells the forgotten story of the men of the Levant Company who sought their fortunes in the Ottoman Empire Their trade brought to the region not only merchants but also ambassadors and envoys pilgrims and chaplains families and servants aristocratic tourists and roving antiquarians Unlike the nabobs who gathered their fortunes in Bengal they both respected and learned from the culture they encountered and their lives provide a fascinating insight into the meeting of East and West before the age of European imperialism Intriguing intimate and original Pashas brings to life an extraordinary tale of faraway visitors beguiled by a mysterious world of Islam 1453,2011 Paper and Books in Ancient Egypt J. Cerny,University College,1947 Ancient Egypt Before Writing Alicia Meza,2012-11 An investigation is made here of a marking and counting system used in Ancient Egypt similar to the one existing in Mesopotamia during the fourth millennium BCE The archaeological model indicates that this development was crucial to the invention of writing and to social stratification in both Mesopotamia and Ancient Egypt This fact was corroborated by archaeological analysis of the areas indicating a very early state formation at the beginning of the Middle Uruk Period in Mesopotamia which corresponded to the Predynastic Period in Egypt A correlation is made here of proto signs from both areas Mesopotamia and Ancient Egypt which was probably used for longrange trade between both regions
