The rise of China and its status as a leading global factory, combined with an increasing worldwide desire for inexpensive toys, clothes, and food, are altering the way people live and consume. At the same time, the world appears wary of the real costs of this desire: toys drenched in lead paint, dangerous medicines, and tainted pet food. Examining sites in China, including the plan for a new eco-city called Dongtan on the island of Chongming, suburbanization projects, and the Shanghai World Expo, Julie Sze interrogates Chinese, European, and American eco-desire and the eco-technological fantasies that underlie contemporary development of global cities and mega-suburbs. In doing so, she challenges readers to rethink how cities must undergo alteration to become true eco-cities. Sze frames her analysis of these case studies in the context of the problems of global economic change and climate crisis, and she explores the flows, fears, and fantasies of Pacific Rim politics that shaped plans for Dongtan. She looks at the flow of pollution from Asia to the United States, ten billion pounds of airborne pollutants annually. Simultaneously, she considers the flow of financial and political capital for eco city and ecological development between elite powerstructures in the UK and China and charts how climate change discussions align with US fears of China's ascendancy and the related demise of the American Century Ultimately Fantasy Islands examines how fears and fantasies about China and historical and political power change the American imagination Provided by publisher Jewish Fantasy Worldwide Valerie Estelle Frankel,2023-04-04 Jewish Fantasy Worldwide Trends in Speculative Stories from Australia to Chile reaches beyond American fiction to reveal a spectrum of Jewish imagination The chapters in this collection cover speculative works by Jewish artists and about Jewish characters from a broad range of national contexts including post Holocaust Europe the Soviet Union Israel South America French Canada and the Middle East The contributors consider various media including novels short stories film YouTube videos and fanfiction Essays explore topics ranging from the ancient Jewish kingdom of Khazaria to modern university classes and the revival of Yiddish to the breadth of LGBTQ representation For scholars and fans alike this collection of essays will provide new perspectives on Jewish presences in speculative fiction around the world Global Trends in Teaching English Language and Literature.
