fantasy novels which real authors new and old used to sell their books to major publishing companies Includes work by Robert Silverberg David Brin Joe Haldeman Mike Resnick Robert J Sawyer Barry N Malzberg and many more Art and Idea in the Novels of China Miéville Carl Freedman,2015-09-07 This book offers in the first six chapters critical readings of six novels by China Miéville which are followed in the seventh chapter by a theoretical meditation on some of the conceptual issues raised by and engaged in the Miéville oeuvre There comes a moment in The City the City though it is not necessarily the same moment for every reader when you realise that Beszel and Ul Qoma are not separate realms but the same space divided Likewise art and idea are often subject to absurd partition but then along comes an author such as China Miéville who shows them to be in truth indissoluble So argues Freedman's inordinately readable and just as rigorous account of Miéville's major novels Highly recommended Mark Bould University of the West of England Freedman offers a compelling interpretation of Miéville's novels informed equally by an impressive range of literary influences and a carefully documented exploration of historical antecedents Seeing Miéville's genre hybridity as an illustration of the power of dialectical thinking Freedman illuminates the complex utopian project of Miéville's fiction Freedman is one of our finest critical voices on Miéville one of the most important speculative writers of the 21st century Sherryl Vint University of California Riverside A Brilliant Idea Every 60 Seconds Michael Kryton,2018-10-09 A Brilliant Idea Every 60 Seconds introduces a tested ideation and creative thinking methodology developed over the author's 36 year career as a creative communications professional and ideation expert This methodology and the associated tools are being applied in personal lives and professional careers helping people connect to their individual way of operating creatively This how to book on ideation focuses an individual's creative lens and makes the process of generating ideas highly tangible It is not simply about techniques it is also about understanding a context of personal individual creativity which allows individuals to more fully understand and embrace the Brilliant ideation techniques Most importantly it is about speed generating ideas right now The book is comprised of three components Examining individual creativity understanding the nature of your individual creative process exploring how you think and operate creatively understanding how others think and operate creatively maximizing the way groups teams and think tanks work together creatively and reach their creative potential The ideation toolkit understanding the nine Inherent Values idea triggers and how they work to generate Idea Strings and Actionable Ideas the matrix of these Inherent Values makes the creative process and ideation tangible Case studies examining over 30 case studies ranging from advertising campaigns and live events to problem solving situations and innovative product development Monsters of Film, Fiction, and Fable Lisa Wenger Bro,Mary Ann Gareis,Crystal O'Leary-Davidson,2018-07-27 Monsters are a part of every society and ours is no exception They are deeply embedded in our history our mythos and our culture However treating them as simply a facet of children's stories or escapist entertainment belittles their importance When examined closely we see that monsters have always represented the things we fear that which is different which we can't understand which is dangerous which is Other But in many ways monsters also represent our growing awareness of ourselves and our changing place in a continually shrinking world Contemporary portrayals of the monstrous often have less to do with what we fear in others than with what we fear about ourselves what we fear we might be capable of The nineteen essays in this volume explore the place and function of the monstrous in a variety of media stories and novels like Baum s Oz books or Gibson s Neuromancer television series and feature films like The Walking Dead or Edward Scissorhands and myths and legends like Beowulf and The Loch Ness Monster in order to provide a closer understanding of not just who we are and who we have been but also who we believe we can be for better or worse
