Globaletics and Radicant Aesthetics in Australian Fiction Salhia Ben-Messahel, 2018-01-23 This book focuses on the issues of space culture and identity in recent Australian fiction It discusses the work of 15 authors to show that in Australia the meaning of country remains critical and cultural belonging is still a difficult process Interrogating the definition of Australia as a post colonial nation and its underlying extension from Britain it applies Nicolas Bourriaud's concept of the Radicant to examine Australian writing beyond the post of post colonialism The book shows that some authors are engaged in writing about the country and the time in which they live but that they also share common critical views on the definition of multiculturalism the belonging to place and integration in the nation The volume suggests that theories of cultural hybridism presented as a decolonising methodology in fact dissolve singularity in the same way that globalisation creates standardisation It argues that 21st century Australian fiction depicts the subject as a radicant and that Australian culture constitutes a mobile entity unconnected to any soil The Tengu Trevor Hay,2020-08-07 In 2019 Roy a retired librarian living alone in dwindling bushland on the outskirts of Melbourne is lured out of his shell by his neighbours two migrant Chinese families who run a motel and restaurant With other neighbours and guests they get together regularly for Friday Chinese banquets retiring for after dinner ghost stories to an old Presbyterian church among the gums behind the restaurant The Temple of Ordinary Terrors He records the passage of the year in a journal that includes notes from his intercultural story telling group He finds that mortals and even some part human part goblin beings like the Japanese tengu inhabit a zone somewhere between the terrors of the supernatural world depicted in literature and art and the ordinary terrors of the natural real world In the process Roy finds a special friend and ultimately exorcises the ghost of his own loneliness which he has been inclined to idealise as solitude Antipodean China Nicholas Jose,Benjamin Madden,2021-02-01 Antipodean China is a collection of essays drawn from a series of encounters between Australian and Chinese writers which took place in China and Australia over a ten year period from 2011 The encounters could be defensive especially given the need to depend on translators but as the writers spoke about the places important to them their influences and their work resemblances emerged and the different perspectives contributed to a sense of common understanding about literature and about the role of the writer in society In some cases the communication is even more direct as when the Tibetan author A Lai speaks knowingly about Alexis Wright s novel Carpentaria and the two winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature Mo Yan and J M Coetzee discuss what the Nobel meant for each of them The collection also includes writing by some of the best Chinese and Australian writers novelists Brian Castro Gail Jones Julia Leigh Yu Hua Sheng Keyi and Liu Zhenyun poets Kate Fagan Ouyang Yu Xi Chuan and Zheng Xiaoqiong and translators Eric Abrahamsen Li Yao and John Minford In the current situation of hostility and suspicion between the two countries this collection presents what may be seen in retrospect as an idyllic moment of communication and trust Redgrave's Ghost Trevor Hay,2020-08-07 Reclusive antiquarian bookseller Alan Redgrave meets Fei Yun a beautiful and beguiling Chinese artist at a gallery in the summer of 2018 She takes him to the ancient oasis town of Dunhuang gateway to the Southern Silk Road Her deep involvement with Taoist philosophy and ritual including talismans and her fascination with an eighteenth century portrait lead him to wonder if there is something haunting her or him
