Ratibor-Ray M. Jurjevich

A Nation Of Wimps:

A Nation of Wimps Hara Estroff Marano, 2008-04-15 Examines the link between overparenting and the resulting generation of dependent medicated and emotionally fragile children demonstrating how over involvement by parents is causing all kinds of problems from binge drinking and self mutilation to violent and impulsive behavior and offers advice on balancing control and freedom to foster children s coping skills Reprint

Parenting Out of Control Margaret K. Nelson, 2012-03 They go by many names helicopter parents hovercrafts PFHs Parents from Hell Drawing on a wealth of eye opening interviews with parents across the country Margaret K Nelson cuts through the stereotypes and hyperbole to examine the realities of what she terms parenting out of control Situating this phenomenon within a broad sociological context she finds several striking explanations for why today s prosperous and well educated parents are unable to set realistic boundaries when it comes to raising their children Analyzing the goals and aspirations parents have for their children as well as the strategies and technologies they use to reach them Nelson discovers fundamental differences among American parenting styles that expose class fault lines both within the elite and between the elite and the middle and working classes Today s parents are faced with unprecedented opportunities and dangers for their children and are evolving novel strategies to adapt to these changes this lucid and insightful work provides an authoritative examination of what happens when these new strategies go too far

Усе замахало Марк Менсон, 2020-04-23 IGen Jean M. Twenge, 2017-08-22 Analyzes how the young people born in the mid 1990s and later significantly differ from those of previous generations examining how social media and texting may be behind today s unprecedented levels of anxiety depression and loneliness Prov de l editor

Thriving at College Alex Chediak, 2011 Filled with wisdom and practical advice from a seasoned college professor and student mentor this text covers the 10 most common mistakes that college students make and how to avoid them

Love, Money, and Parenting Matthias Doepke, Fabrizio Zilibotti, 2020-11-03 Doepke and Zilibotti investigate how economic forces shape how parents raise their children They show that in countries with increasing economic inequality such as the United States parents push harder to ensure their children have a path to security and success Economics has transformed the hands off parenting of the 1960s and 70s into a frantic overscheduled activity Growing inequality has also resulted in an increasing parenting gap between richer and poorer families raising the disturbing prospect of diminished social mobility and fewer opportunities for children from disadvantaged backgrounds The authors discuss how investments in early childhood development and the design of education systems factor into the parenting equation and how economics can help shape policies that will contribute to the ideal of equal opportunity for all From publisher description
