A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man (Annotated) James Joyce, 2021-02-24 Differentiated book It has a historical context with research of the time This book contains a historical context where past events or the study and narration of these events are examined The historical context refers to the circumstances and incidents surrounding an event This context is formed by everything that in some way influences the event when it happens A fact is always tied to its time that is to its characteristics Therefore when analyzing events that took place tens hundreds or thousands of years ago it is essential to know the historical context to understand them Otherwise we would be analyzing and judging what happened in a totally different era with a current perspective A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man is probably the most read work of all that Joyce wrote although it is by no means the most interesting to critics if we compare it with the volumes of commentary generated by Ulysses and Finnegans Wake Its relative simplicity by comparison with the others makes it more appropriate to be part of the literature course programs so that the Joycean experience of many readers begins with A Portrait However the simplicity of the Portrait is only apparent since it has not only suffered the usual bibliographic avatars while different authors tried to establish a critical edition accepted by all but the critical reception of the work itself has been extraordinarily controversial from the beginning A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man. (Second Edition.). James Joyce, 1917

A Portrait of the Artist As a Young Man by James Joyce James Joyce,2017-09 A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man tells the story of Stephen Dedalus a boy growing up in Ireland at the end of the nineteenth century as he gradually decides to cast off all his social familial and religious constraints to live a life devoted to the art of writing As a young boy Stephen's Catholic faith and Irish nationality heavily influence him He attends a strict religious boarding school called Clongowes Wood College At first Stephen is lonely and homesick at the school but as time passes he finds his place among the other boys He enjoys his visits home even though family tensions run high after the death of the Irish political leader Charles Stewart Parnell This sensitive subject becomes the topic of a furious politically charged argument over the family's Christmas dinner Stephen's father Simon is inept with money and the family sinks deeper and deeper into debt After a summer spent in the company of his Uncle Charles Stephen learns that the family cannot afford to send him back to Clongowes and that they will instead move to Dublin Stephen starts attending a prestigious day school called Belvedere where he grows to excel as a writer and as an actor in the student theater His first sexual experience with a young Dublin prostitute unleashes a storm of guilt and shame in Stephen as he tries to reconcile his physical desires with the stern Catholic morality of his surroundings For a while he ignores his religious upbringing throwing himself with debauched abandon into a variety of sins masturbation gluttony and more visits to prostitutes among others Then on a three day religious retreat Stephen hears a trio of fiery sermons about sin judgment and hell Deeply shaken the young man resolves to rededicate himself to a life of Christian piety Stephen begins attending Mass every day becoming a model of Catholic piety abstinence and self denial His religious devotion is so pronounced that the director of his school asks him to consider entering the priesthood After briefly considering the offer Stephen realizes that the austerity of the priestly life is utterly incompatible with his love for sensual beauty That day Stephen learns from his sister that the family will be moving once again for financial reasons Anxiously awaiting news about his acceptance to the university Stephen goes for a walk on the beach where he observes a young girl wading in the tide He is struck by her beauty and realizes in a moment of epiphany that the love and desire of beauty should not be a source of shame Stephen resolves to live his life to the fullest and vows not to be constrained by the boundaries of his family his nation and his religion Stephen moves on to the university where he develops a number of strong friendships and is especially close with a young man named Cranly In a series of conversations with his companions Stephen works to formulate his theories about art While he is dependent on his friends as listeners he is also determined to create an independent existence liberated from the expectations of friends and family He becomes more and more determined to free himself from all limiting pressures and eventually decides to leave Ireland to escape them Like his namesake the mythical Daedalus Stephen hopes to build himself wings on which he can fly above all obstacles and achieve a life as an artist
