A Good Scent From A Strange Mountain Stories

Paul March-Russell

A Good Scent From A Strange Mountain Stories:

A Good Scent from a Strange Mountain Robert Olen Butler, 2018-09-01 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize Uncannily perceptive stories written by an American from the viewpoint of Vietnamese citizens transplanted to Louisiana People A Good Scent from a Strange Mountain is Robert Olen Butler's Pulitzer Prize winning collection of lyrical and poignant stories about the aftermath of the Vietnam War and its enduring impact on the Vietnamese Written in a soaring prose Butler's haunting and powerful stories blend Vietnamese folklore and contemporary American realities creating a vibrant panorama that is epic in its scope This new edition includes two previously uncollected stories Missing and Salem that brilliantly complete the collection's narrative journey returning to the jungles of Vietnam to explore the experiences of a former Vietcong soldier and an American MIA Deeply affecting A brilliant collection of stories about storytellers whose recited folklore radiates as implicit prayer One of the strongest collections I've read in ages Ann Beattie The Contemporary American Short-Story Cycle James Nagel, 2004-04-01 James Nagel offers the first systematic history and definition of the short story cycle as exemplified in contemporary American fiction bringing attention to the format's wide appeal among various ethnic groups He examines in detail eight recent manifestations of the genre all praised by critics while uniformly misidentified as novels Nagel proposes that the short story cycle with its concentric as opposed to linear plot development possibilities lends itself particularly well to exploring themes of ethnic assimilation which mirror some of the major issues facing American society today A Good Scent from a Strange Mountain :- Robert Olen Butler, 2001-04-05 A Good Scent from a Strange Mountain Robert Olen Butler, 1992 Writing Vietnam, Writing Life Tobey C. Herzog, 2009-05 Phillip Caputo Larry Heinemann Tim O'Brien and Robert Olen Butler four young midwestern Americans coming of age during the 1960s who faced a difficult personal decision whether or not to fight in Vietnam Each chose to participate After coming home these four veterans became prizewinning authors telling the war stories and life stories of soldiers and civilians The four extended conversations included in Writing Vietnam Writing Life feature revealing personal stories alongside candid assessments of each author's distinct roles as son soldier writer and teacher of creative writing As Tobey Herzog's thoughtful interviews reveal these soldier authors have diverse upbringings values interests writing careers life experiences and literary voices They hold wide ranging views on among other things fatherhood war the military religion the creative process the current state of the world and the nature of both physical and moral courage For each author the conversation and richly annotated chronology provide an overview of the writer's life the intersection of memory and imagination in his writing and the path of his literary career Together these four life stories also offer mini tableaux of the fascinating and troubling time of 1960s and 1970s America Above all the conversations reveal that each author is linked forever to the Vietnam War the country of Vietnam and its people A Web of Words Richard J. Gray, 2007 Helps readers understand how any literary tradition involves an open conversation between its texts a web of words that stretches from the local to the transnational This book charts 3 different intertextual practices involving writings both within and outside the South A Concise Companion to Postwar American Literature and Culture Josephine Hendin, 2004-07-23 This Concise Companion is a guide to the creative output of the United States in the postwar period in its diverse energies shapes and forms Embraces diversity covering Vietnam literature gay and lesbian literature American Jewish fiction Italian American literature Irish American writing emergent ethnic literatures African American writing jazz film drama and more Shows how different genres and approaches opened up creative possibilities and interacted in the postwar period Portrays the postwar United States split by differences of wealth and position by ethnicity and race and by agendas of left and right but united in the intensity of its creative drive A Study Guide for Robert Olen Butler's "Good Scent from a Strange Mountain" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016-07-12 A Study Guide for Robert Olen Butler's Good Scent from a Strange Mountain excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs Liminality and the Short Story Jochen Achilles, Ina Bergmann, 2014-12-05 This book is a study of the short story one of the widest taught genres in English literature from an innovative methodological perspective Both liminality and the short story are well researched phenomena but the combination of both is not frequent This book discusses the relevance of the concept of liminality for the short story genre and for short story cycles emphasizing theoretical perspectives methodological relevance and applicability Liminality as a concept of demarcation and mediation between different processual stages spatial complexes and inner states is of obvious importance in an age of global mobility digital networking and interethnic transnationality Over the last decade many symposia exhibitions art and publications have been produced which thematize liminality covering a wide range of disciplines including literary geographical psychological and ethnicity studies Liminal structuring is an essential aspect of the aesthetic composition of short stories and the cultural messages they convey On account of its very brevity and episodic structure the generic liminality of the short story privileges the depiction of transitional situations and fleeting moments of crisis or decision It also addresses the moral transgressions heterotopic orders and forms of ambivalent self reflection negotiated within the short story's confines This innovative collection focuses on both the liminality of the short story and on liminality in the short story Short Story Paul March-Russell, 2009-05-15 This new general introduction emphasises the importance of the short story to an understanding of modern fiction In twenty succinct chapters the study paints a complete portrait of the short story its history culture aesthetics and economics European innovators such as Chekhov Flaubert and Kafka are compared to Irish New Zealand and British practitioners such as Joyce Mansfield and Carter as well as writers in the American tradition from Hawthorne and Poe to Barthelme and Carver Fresh attention is paid to experimental postcolonial and popular fiction alongside developments in Anglo American Hispanic and European literature Critical approaches to the short story are debated and reassessed while discussion of the short story is related to contemporary critical theory In what promises to be essential reading for students and academics the study sets out to prove that the short story remains vital to the emerging culture of the twenty first century
