Assessment for Crisis Intervention Rick Myer, 2001 Handling crisis situations is a scary and often intimidating task for many beginning and even seasoned counselors social workers human service workers psychologists nurses police officers and other professionals Assessment is the foundation and most critical process in crisis intervention since it helps provide the practitioner with essential information reducing the trial and error method that many practitioners find themselves using Myer discusses a three dimensional model for understanding the assessment process using affect cognition and behavior reactions as the three core components of the assessment process Unique in its focus on assessment in crisis intervention this text provides a needed element that is often left out or treated superficially in other crisis intervention texts

Enjoying the Tune of Phrase: An Psychological Symphony within A Guide To Crisis Intervention 4th Ed

In a global consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate communication, the melodic beauty and mental symphony developed by the prepared term usually fade in to the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless noise and distractions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of A Guide To Crisis Intervention 4th Ed a stunning literary prize brimming with natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful composer of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts viewers on a mental trip, well unraveling the concealed tunes and profound influence resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this poignant assessment, we will investigate the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing design, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
