Geologic Field Trips along the Boundary between the Central Lowlands and Great Plains Jesse T. Korus, 2014-04-10 Sites of geologic interest along the boundary between the Central Lowlands and the Great Plains are anything but subtle Both geological and human forces have created some treasures in this area and this guidebook includes three field trips offered at the GSA North Central Section meeting in Lincoln Nebraska in April 2014

Students Learning in Communities Eija Kimonen, Raimo Nevalainen, 2022-04-04 This book examines the interplay between education and society in the 20th and early 21st centuries and addresses philosophical views and educational aims with their associated values for community based learning in the U S A India Russia and China The philosophical background of community based learning in these countries relies both on national philosophical traditions and on reformist ideas in international schools of thought over time opposition to certain international pedagogical ideas surfaced in these countries The authors offer a comprehensive picture of community based learning in education and demonstrate how teachers can make learning more functional and holistic so that students can work in new situations within their complex worlds School specific descriptions reveal how teachers and students implemented community based projects at different times Toward Community-Based Learning, 2020-01-29 Toward Community Based Learning contends that the ideal school offers the opportunity to understand reality in a way that connects teaching and education with conditions in the surrounding community and the student's life and concerns This view holds that problem solving requires an understanding and awareness of the whole which can be achieved through direct activities In this manner learning is linked to its natural context with ideal instruction being actively problem oriented holistic and life centered This thought provoking volume offers an essential and comprehensive picture of community based learning in the field of education The book deals with the history of community based learning as well as its present applications including its global successes and difficulties The authors provide numerous pedagogical approaches that are designed to meet the challenges of contemporary education They show how learning is connected with authentic community environments in which students can gain new understandings through solving emerging problems They also demonstrate how teachers can make learning more functional and holistic so that students have the ability to work in new situations within the complex world around them School specific descriptions reveal how teachers and their students have implemented community based projects in the U S A India and China at different times Contributors are Thomas L Alsbury Mary Ewans Linda Hargreaves Susan K Johnsen Eija Kimonen Susan Kobashigawa Karon N LeCompte Suzanne M Nesmith Raimo Nevalainen and Lakia M Scott New Publications of the U.S. Geological Survey, 1994 New Publications of the U.S. Geological Survey Geological Survey (U.S.), 1994 Field Trips in Environmental Education Martin Storksdieck, 2011-01-01

Hauptbeschreibung Field trips are a popular method for introducing students to concepts ideas and experiences that cannot be provided in a classroom environment This is particularly true for trans disciplinary areas of teaching and learning such as science or environmental education While field trips are generally viewed by educators as beneficial to teaching and learning and by students as a cherished alternative to classroom instruction educational research paints a more complex picture At a time when school systems demand proof of the educational value of field trips large gaps often exist The Geology of the Carolinas J. Wright Horton, Victor A. Zullo, 1991 To celebrate its fiftieth anniversary the Carolina Geological Society invited forty three authors to contribute to the creation of The Geology of the Carolinas The only comprehensive modern treatment of the subject the volume has been prepared for a diverse readership ranging from undergraduate students to specialists in the fields of geology and related earth sciences Following the editors general introduction are chapters on Precambrian and Paleozoic metamorphic and igneous rocks of the Appalachian Blue Ridge and Piedmont rocks of early Mesozoic rift basins formed just before the opening of the Atlantic Ocean Cretaceous and Tertiary sedimentary deposits of the Atlantic Coastal Plain Quaternary geology and geomorphology Cenozoic tectonism including evidence for the recurrence of large earthquakes near Charleston and an overview of mineral resources in the Carolinas The book includes an index of field guides produced by the society and a thorough bibliography By introducing exciting new concepts and focusing on challenging problems on the frontiers of research this authoritative book will stimulate research in the years to come The Editors J Wright Horton Jr is a research geologist for the United States Geological Survey in Reston Virginia Victor A Zullo is a professor of geology at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington
