

A person is standing in front of a large, arched stone entrance to a building, likely a college. They are wearing a red shirt and a white jacket, and their arms are raised in a celebratory gesture. The air is filled with white confetti or small pieces of paper, suggesting a graduation ceremony or a moment of triumph. The background shows the stone archway and the wooden doors of the entrance.

A Holistic Model Of College Ministry:

A Holistic Model of College Ministry Jeremy Love, 2014-12-06 Throughout the course of my life I have gained an understanding of the importance of holistic discipleship in a community of faith Being raised in a legalistic congregation that bore little fruit and later making a transition during college to a caring faith community I now see the importance that a caring faith community plays in the process of discipleship The church of my childhood demonstrated only judgment and a lack of care but during college I discovered that through a caring community the love of God and the affirmation of others

A Holistic Model of Discipleship Relating to College Ministry Within the Context of Mount Olive East Church of God Jereme A. Love, 2007 Growing Women in Ministry Anna R. Morgan, 2024-10-29 While many aspects of leadership development are similar for women and men women face different cultural expectations and have different experiences than their male counterparts Anna Morgan's own experiences in pastoral ministry leadership launched her search for a holistic way to grow the skills influence and authority of women who are gifted and called as leaders This book provides a positive comprehensive research based model for developing women in church and ministry leadership Morgan identifies seven aspects of leadership development that form a woman over her lifetime Three work inwardly as a woman grows in leadership spiritual calling giftedness and emotional intelligence Four work externally to shape her authority and influence home life supports ministry leadership contexts leadership relationships and communication Growing Women in Ministry offers a new way to understand how women leaders are formed and how they rise to become influential leaders in positions of authority in churches and ministries It is written in a clear accessible style for both female ministry leaders and men seeking to promote female leaders It includes policy suggestions strategies values for ideal growing conditions and discussion questions making it an ideal resource for ministry practical theology and leadership courses church and parachurch leaders and pastors The Post-Black and Post-White Church Efrem Smith, 2020-11-03 The key to creating and growing a more unified and holistic church is the multi ethnic and Christ centered community that offers a strong connection between theology and practical ministry models and that nurtures believers who are wrestling with what it means to be the church of the Bible today Most books on racial reconciliation or multi ethnic ministry center on the theological foundations history or social problem aspects of the topic The Post Black and Post White Church offers a practical hands on blueprint for developing and sustaining a multi ethnic and Christ centered community Written by Efrem Smith an innovative and passionate African American leader of the Covenant Evangelical Church and founding pastor of Sanctuary Covenant Church in Minneapolis Minnesota this groundbreaking book shares his skills experience and wisdom for congregations who want to grow into a multi ethnic missional identity The Post Black and Post White Church connects theology and practical ministry models for wrestling with what it means to be church in an increasingly multi ethnic world that is polarized by class politics and race The book embraces Jesus as one who was both Jewish and multi ethnic and focuses on a theology of reconciled multi ethnic and missional leadership Creating Campus Community William M. McDonald, 2007-07-23 We have at our disposal one of the greatest vehicles for community building known to humankind the one called education from the foreword by Parker Palmer Connecting authentically and deeply with others across all dimensions of life enriches the human spirit The sense of community resulting from such connections is a hallmark of a supportive campus environment which we know is an important factor in enhancing student learning The contributions to this book offer a vision we can work toward and provide instructive examples from different types of institutions to point the way George D Kuh chancellor's professor and director National Survey of Student Engagement Indiana University Ernie Boyer was a giant in higher education This book a resource guide focuses on one of his great loves campus community The book examines his contributions and offers a compelling agenda for action Arthur Levine president Teachers College Columbia University This well written and timely book draws on the lessons learned from five very different institutions as they attempted to address a major challenge to higher education building effective campus communities Practitioners will find this to be an invaluable resource and guide as they attempt to bring Ernie Boyer's vision to life on their campuses A great tribute to one of America's leading educators Charles C Schroeder professor of higher education University of Missouri Columbia There is no topic more important in higher education today than creating campus community McDonald and his associates have indeed lived up to Ernest Boyer's legacy by presenting us with a remarkable set of campus models for us to admire and emulate Yolanda T Moses president American Association for Higher Education This book comes at an auspicious time of educational transformation Like the Boyer Center this book's fundamental priority in meeting today's challenging new realities is the discovery and creation of new forms of community Glen R Bucher executive director the Boyer Center College Ministry 101 Chuck Bomar, 2009-07-28 18-25 year olds are trying to find their place in society while living through an array of experiences that force them to reevaluate beliefs and assumptions they were raised with which leads many students to disconnect from the church after high school College Ministry 101 will help church leaders understand the college age stage in order to better minister to their needs This book will provide leaders with practical ministry philosophies about how to effectively minister to college students through mentor relationships what students need in their day to day lives how to work with volunteers in college ministry and how to turn college age students into genuine disciples Surviving the State, Remaking the Church Li Ma, Jin Li, 2017-12-11 This sociological portrait presents how Chinese Christians have coped with life under a hostile regime over a span of different historical periods and how Christian churches as collective entities have been reshaped by ripples of social change China's change from a centrally planned economy to a market economy or from an agrarian society to an urbanizing society are admittedly significant phenomena worthy of scholarly attention but real changes are about values and beliefs that give rise to social structures over time The growth of Christianity has become interwoven with the disintegration or emergence of Chinese cultural beliefs political ideologies and commercial values Relying mainly on an oral history method for data collection the authors allow the narratives of Chinese Christians to speak for themselves Identifying the formative cultural elements a sociohistorical analysis also helps to lay out a coherent understanding of the complexity of religious experiences for Christians in the Chinese world This book also serves to bring back scholarly discussions on the habits of the heart as the condition that helps form identities and nurture social morality whether individuals engage in private or public affairs

Welcoming Africa's children - Theological and ministry perspectives Jan Grobbelaar, Gert Breed, Stephan de Beer, Nico Koopman, Elijah Mahlangu, Malan Nel, Dirkie Smit, Pieter Verster, 2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theology from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It aims to convey the importance of considering Africa's children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa's children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical but more qualitative research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research that the authors have performed in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Child Theologies is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa's children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provides insights that are also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere

The Living Church, 1976-07 A Heart for the Community John Fuder, Noel Castellanos, 2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities economic development strategies and more As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise The voices within these
