A Life Interrupted Stories:

A Life Interrupted Michael P. Langelaan, 2003 Michael Langelaan's first book A Life Interrupted explores the sometimes stormy relationship between parents and their children. It is the story of Alex Fray, a troubled man who had been given up at birth by his biological parents. It would be an understatement to say that there were challenges during Alex's early years which include two sets of adoptive parents, encounters with the law, experimentation with drugs and poor school grades; however, the author cleverly utilizes the character's foibles and inadequacies to form the basis for a compelling tale of courage and determination. Alex is faced with emotional and physical obstacles in his quest to find the love and acceptance he so desperately seeks, but his journey eventually leads him home, culminating in a bizarre twist of fate that reveals his true identity. A Life Interrupted underscores the impact that parents' words and behaviour have on their children's lives and demonstrates how some parental decisions can lead to dire consequences. Life Interrupted Teisha Rose, 2015-02-12 Teisha Rose was just twenty-two and on a fast track to corporate success when her life was interrupted by a huge and unexpected hurdle. For the next four years she grieved for her lost dreams, caught in an avalanche of endless hospital ordeals and gruelling rehabilitation. Her devastating physical condition came to dominate her identity until she decided to turn her hurdle into hope. Teisha committed herself to finding joy where it seemed impossible. Turning an existence of debilitating lows into a life of exhilarating highs, she left her homeland to travel the world. She left creature comforts to help orphans overseas. She left corporate life to become a social worker among the homeless and lonely. She found new gifts, new perspectives, new homes, new friends, and in an amazing set of circumstances, she found love. Teisha's extraordinary story will break your heart, inspire you, enthrall you, and thrill you. Yet Life Interrupted is more than a life story. In the second part of her book, Teisha uses her unique discoveries to help you find your way through whatever might have interrupted your own dreams. Your challenges need not be as tragic as Teisha Rose's; few people are, but like her, you can find your way past your hurdle to a new life full of hope.

A Life Interrupted: Essays in honour of the lives and legacies of Christof Heyns Frans Viljoen, Charles Fombad, Dire Tladi, Ann Skelton, Magnus Killander, 2022-01-10 About the publication: This volume of essays, A life interrupted: essays in honour of the lives and legacies of Christof Heyns, honours Christof Heyns, renowned human rights lawyer, advocate, activist, and educator, but also down-to-earth family man, friend, and colleague. Christof's sudden and most untimely passing on 28 March 2021 deeply saddened those close to him, but also evinced an outpouring of grief from the national and international human rights community. His passing brought a deep sense of loss, in part because at age 62 he was fully engaged in contributing to the betterment of society and still had so much more to give. His is a life interrupted. But at the same time, looking back over the varied lives he lived, he had already left his mark in so many ways. His influences and impacts are manifold and magical. This collection not only testifies to the legacy that he has left us, but also to the ongoing efforts of many to continue building on his legacy. This collection contains two sets of essays by family members friends colleagues collaborators and students Part A contains essays of a more reflective and personal nature while the contributions in Part B link to the scholarly or academic themes Christof had worked on and explored including international human rights systems international law the right to life freedom of association international humanitarian law the impact of human rights treaties constitutionalism and legal philosophy However a neat distinction between the personal and professional is not possible in respect of such a warm generous and enthusiastic person as Christof Most of the essays in Part A integrate some of Christof s professional and academic achievements while many of the essays in Part B also reflect on Christof as a person The editors all based at the Faculty of Law UP are colleagues and friends who worked closely with Christof Frans Viljoen succeeded Christof as Director of the Centre for Human Rights Christof was his doctoral supervisor mentor and research collaborator Charles Fombad worked with Christof at ICLA and took over as ICLA Director after Christof s passing Dire Tladi an ICLA fellow had his office just across from Christof in ICLA As member of the International Law Commission he shared with Christof high level engagement with the UN While Christof served on the Human Rights Committee his colleague Ann Skelton serves on the Committee on the Rights of the Child Magnus Killander worked closely with Christof as co author and co editor Christof was also his doctoral supervisor The publication date of this book is 10 January 2022 which is the date marking 63 years since Christof s birth The publisher is the Pretoria University Law Press PULP of which Christof was also a founder Life Interrupted Priscilla Shirer,2011 Popular author Shirer uses the biblical book of Jonah to address daily obedience to God and how to respond when His plans don t match our own
