A New Dawn English Edition:

A New Dawn for Politics Alain Badiou, 2022-09-20 What is the relation between politics and the world It might seem that global capitalism has created one world but this is an illusion because capitalism creates a world of objects and money that divides human existence into regions separated by fences and walls built to keep some people out In place of this falsely unified world of global capitalism we need to assert a fundamental principle namely that there is one world of living subjects This in Badiou's view is the categorical imperative of all true politics The one world of living subjects is the place where an infinity of differences and identities exist Hence foreigners are not a problem but rather an opportunity and a gift They bear witness to the youth of the world in its infinite variety and it is with this youth that the politics of the future rests Foreignness is the means by which existence is re-evaluated and all true politics is a new dawn of existence This collection of essays by Badiou in which he draws out the political implications of recent events and social movements will be of value to anyone interested in the great social and political questions of our time

World Bank Literature Amitava Kumar, 2003 World Bank literature is more than a concept it is a provocation a call to arms It is intended to prompt questions about each word to probe globalization political economy and the role of literary and cultural studies As asserted in this major work it signals a radical rewriting of academic debates a rigorous analysis of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund IMF and a consideration of literature that deals with new global realities Made more relevant than ever by momentous antiglobalization demonstrations in Seattle and Genoa World Bank Literature brings together essays by a distinguished group of economists cultural and literary critics social scientists and public policy analysts to ask how to understand the influence of the World Bank IMF on global economic power relations and cultural production The authors attack this question in myriad ways examining World Bank IMF documents as literature their impact on developing nations the relationship between literature and globalization the connection between the academy and the global economy and the emergence of coalitions confronting the new power World Bank Literature shows above all the multifarious and sometimes nefarious ways that abstract academic debates play themselves out concretely in social policy and cultural mores that reinforce traditional power structures

Literature, Gender, and the Trauma of Partition Debali Mookerjee-Leonard, 2017-04-07 Partition occurring simultaneously with British decolonization of the Indian subcontinent led to the formation of independent India and Pakistan While the political and communal aspects of the Partition have received some attention its enormous personal and psychological costs have been mostly glossed over particularly when it comes to the splitting of Bengal The memory of this historical ordeal has been preserved in literary archives and these archives are still being excavated This book examines neglected narratives of the Partition of India in 1947 to study the traces left by this foundational trauma on the national and regional cultural imaginaries in India Pakistan and Bangladesh To arrive at a more complex understanding of how Partition experiences of violence migration and displacement shaped postcolonial societies and subjectivities in South Asia the author analyses through novels and short stories multiple cartographies of disorientation and anxiety in the post Partition period The book illuminates how contingencies of political geography cut across personal and collective histories and how these intersections are variously marked and mediated by literature Examining works composed in Bengali and other South Asian languages this book seeks to broaden and complicate existing conceptions of what constitutes the Partition literary archive A valuable addition to the growing field of Partition studies this book will be of interest to scholars of South Asian history gender studies and literature
