Merry Wives and Others Penelope

Fritzer, Bartholomew Bland, 2010-06-28 In many ways the history of domestic humor writing is also a history of domestic life in the twentieth century For many years domestic humor was written primarily by females significant contributions from male writers began as times and family structures changed It remains timeless because of its basis on the relationships between husbands and wives parents and children houses and inhabitants pets and their owners chores and their doers and neighbors This work is a historical and literary survey of humorists who wrote about home It begins with a chapter on the social context of and attitudes toward traditional domestic roles and housewives The following chapters beginning with the 1920s and continuing through today cover the different time periods and the foremost American domestic humorists and the humor written by surrogate parents grown children about their childhood families husbands and Canadian and English writers Also covered are the differences among various writers toward traditional domestic roles some like Erma Bombeck and Judith Viorst embraced them while others like Caryl Kristenson and Marilyn Kentz resisted them Common themes such as the isolation and competitiveness of housework home as an idealized metaphysical goal and ongoing physical challenge and the urban suburban and rural life are also explored The New York Times Book Review, 1988-07 SJ's Winners

Serena Jutkovitz, 1982 Dinner Roles Sherrie A. Inness, 2001-04 A stimulating collection of essays in which leading theorists of regionalism join with talented younger scholars in remapping the field Revisionary in every sense Breaking Boundaries asks fresh questions about traditional stalwarts regionalizes figures hitherto examined under other rubrics and introduces readers to new authors and texts Carolyn L Karcher author of The First Woman in the Republic A Cultural Biography of Lydia Maria Child Applied Microeconomics Jonas Prager, 1993 The Great American Chili Book Bill Bridges, 1981 Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books

Eye Chart William Germano, 2017-09-07 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things Desert nomads tested their vision by distinguishing a pair of stars But we have since created more disquieting ways to test the strength of the eyes Reading the eye chart is an exercise in failure since it only gets interesting when you cannot read any further It is the opposite of interpretative reading like one does with literature When you have finished reading an eye chart what exactly have you even read From a Spanish cleric's Renaissance guide to testing vision to a Dutch ophthalmologist's innovation in optical tech to the witty subversion of the eye chart in advertising and popular culture William Germano's Eye Chart lets people see the eye chart at last Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic
