

Chapter 6: Launching the New Nation

Section 1: Washington Heads the New Government

The New Government Takes Shape

- As a hero of the revolution, Washington was the unanimous choice in the first presidential ballot.
- Although the Constitution provided a strong foundation, it was not a detailed plan for governing.
- With no judicial system set up, Washington and the Congress came up with the *Judiciary Act of 1789- this law provided for a Supreme Court consisting of a chief justice and five associate justices.
- It also setup 3 federal circuit courts as well as 13 federal district courts spread throughout the country.
- Section 25 of the act allowed state court decisions to be appealed to the federal court, when constitutional issues were raised- thus, guaranteeing that federal laws remained "the supreme law of the land," as stated in the Constitution.

- The executive branch was shaped next.
- Washington needed help to make policies and carry out the laws passed by Congress.
- Three executive departments were created
- The Department of War led by Henry Knox, to handle military matters.
- The Department of State led by Thomas Jefferson, to deal with foreign affairs.
- The Department of Treasury led by Alexander Hamilton, to manage finances.
- These departments soon became the president's Chief Advisers, or *Cabinet.

Hamilton and Jefferson Debate

- Political divisions in the new nation were great.
- No two men embodied these differences more than Hamilton and Jefferson.
- Hamilton believed in a strong central government led by the educated elite of the upper class.
- Jefferson distrusted a strong central government and the rich. He favored strong state and local governments rooted in popular participation. (Contrasting views page 185)

-Hamilton's Economic Plan

- He proposed to pay off the foreign debt and issue new bonds to soldiers who had received them during the war as certificates that promised payment plus interest.
- Hamilton also proposed that the federal government assume the debts of the states.
- He reasoned that this would give creditors (the people who originally loaned the money) an incentive to support the new federal government.
- This plan made many Southern states furious because many had already paid off most of their debts.

-Plans for a National Bank

- Hamilton believed that there should be a national bank that would be funded by both the federal government and the wealthy private investors.
