Donna Podems

Ana Question Papers Grade 9 2013:

Democratic Evaluation and Democracy Donna Podems, 2017-02-01 Democratic evaluation brings a way of thinking about evaluation's role in society and in particular its role in strengthening social justice. Yet the reality of applying it and what happens when it is applied particularly outside the West is unclear. Set in South Africa, a newly formed democracy in Southern Africa, the book affords an in-depth journey that immerses a reader into the realities of evaluation and its relation to democracy. The book starts with the broader introductory chapters that set the scene for more detailed ones which bring thorough insights into national government, local government, and civil societies' experience of evaluation, democratic evaluation, and their understanding of how it contributes to strengthening democracy or not. A teaching case, the book concludes by providing guiding questions that encourage reflection, discussion, and learning that ultimately aims to inform practice and theory. Annual Performance Plan Mpumalanga (South Africa). Department of Education, 2016

Learning, Marginalization, and Improving the Quality of Education in Low-income Countries Daniel A. Wagner, Nathan M. Castillo, Suzanne Grant Lewis, 2022-02-21 Improving learning evidence and outcomes for those most in need in developing countries is at the heart of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal on Education, SDG4. This timely volume brings together contributions on current empirical research and analysis of emerging trends that focus on improving the quality of education through better policy and practice, particularly for those who need improved learning at the bottom of the pyramid, LBOP. This volume brings together academic research experts, government officials, and field-based practitioners. National and global experts present multiple broad thematic papers ranging from the effects of migration and improving teaching to the potential of educational technologies and better metrics for understanding and financing education. In addition, local experts, practitioners, and policymakers describe their own work on LBOP issues being undertaken in Kenya, India, Mexico, and Ivory Coast. The contributors argue persuasively that learning equity is a moral imperative but also one that will have educational, economic, and social impacts. They further outline how achieving SDG4 will take renewed and persistent effort by stakeholders to use better measurement tools to promote learning achievement among poor and marginalized children. This volume builds on the second international conference on Learning at the Bottom of the Pyramid, LBOP2. It will be an indispensable resource for policymakers, researchers, and government think tanks and local experts, as well as any readers interested in the implementation of learning equity across the globe. The first volume, Learning at the Bottom of the Pyramid, LBOP1, may be obtained at <http://www.iiep.unesco.org/en/learning-bottom-pyramid/4608>.

An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994. Here We May Rest Silvia Giagnoni, 2017-04-02 Hailed as the most restrictive immigration bill in the nation the Beason Hammon Alabama Taxpayer Citizen Protection Act known as HB 56 went into effect in September 2011 Its intent was to create jobs for Alabamians by making the lives of undocumented immigrants in the state impossible so that they would self deport It failed Here We May Rest offers a comprehensive explanation of how and why HB 56 came about and reports on its effects on immigrant communities Author Silvia Giagnoni argues that the legislation was anti immigrant not merely anti illegal immigration as its proponents claimed Building a case against the legalistic framework through which the bill was promoted Giagnoni dissects the role the media and Fox News specifically played in criminalizing immigrants as well as mainstreaming immigrant haters which created the xenophobic climate that paved the way for the Trump Presidency The new immigrants of Alabama take center stage in the second part of the book reclaiming their role in the cultural social and economic development of the state Giagnoni concludes with an appeal against any form of social segregation because only direct contact massive prolonged equal and intimate as Howard Zinn argued will cure the stereotyping and prejudice that feed ignorance and foster fear
